Frequently asked question (FAQ)

Q: What even is secret santa?

A: Secret Santa is an event where a group exchanges gifts! (in this case art) amongst each other. Each person is assigned a person to give to within the group. Everyone makes, and receives a gift

Q: I don't have an oc but I want to join!

A: ocs are not required!!! there is a section for canon characters, or cannon slugcats with different (or the same) colors!)

Q: I'm not good at drawing but I still want to participate. What do i do?

A: That's okay! Anyone of any skill level is allowed to partake in the event! Even then, the gifts aren't limited to just drawings! You can also do 3D models, music, and anything else you can think of! Just ask if you're going to do anything not listed!

Q: I won't be able to finish my gift on time, can I still join?

A: Sadly we will not be giving any extensions to anyone, due to the nature of secret santa! We wouldn't want someone to be left out because someone else couldn't finish it

Q: Something out of my control happened and I can't do my gift anymore. What should I do?

A: I only ask that people opt out halfway through if they physically can't draw anymore, but if it comes to that i will try my hardest to draw for your person, or you two can plan something together

Q: Am I allowed to tell people who I got for secret santa?

A: Of course! As long as you don't tell the person you got that you got them, but if they find out from another person then that's on you, so be careful who you tell!

Q: I want to give my friend a gift but I didn't get them in the secret santa, can I still give them something?

A: Of course! don't let us discourage you from giving gifts

Q: There's an uneven amount of people, what happens now?

A: I'll do the gift for the last person!

Q: When is the deadline?

A: The deadline should be in the announcement! Though it should fall on the 23rd of every month

Q: In the form there is an option to submit three ocs? Do I need three ocs?

A: Nope! It's just to give your secret Santa variety to pick from! They could do one, two, or three gifts! It's all up to your secret santa

Q: Is there any kind of art not allowed?

A: Pretty much everything is allowed! aside from fanfiction/poetry, ref sheets, meme draw overs, and traced drawings. The art has to be original, but don't be afraid to be inspired by things!

Q: I have a question that isn't listed, where do I go?

A: DM me on discord! tunamilo

Once you've finished reading everything, you can submit your form if you'd like to participate!!!
