SUMMER LEADERSHIP AND LAW ACADEMY APPLICATION & PERMISSION SLIP

As this course is designed to ensure students develop a better understanding of the criminal justice system and their role as citizens of the United States, it is sometimes the case that students may view and/or discuss materials and information of a mature and graphic nature. We therefore require that all students have their parent or guardian sign this permission slip allowing their child to be exposed to this information.

I give my child permission to view and discuss all information and materials related to the Summer Leadership and Law Academy, as well as participate in all activities and events related to the Summer Leadership and Law Academy.
