

OnEdMentors Broadcast AFP

OnEdMentors is the longest running live show on voicEd Radio. It began 7 years ago as a way to mentor preservice teachers, but the weekly panel of educators were learning as much from each other as they were teaching the audience of mentees.

A new panel of educators is gathered each week around a relevant topic in education or to update our audience on what's happening at The Mentoree.

The show is live on voicEd Radio (voicEd.ca) from 8-9pm EST each Monday. (#MentorMonday)

On the first MOnday of each month, we welcome Teacher Candidates onto the panel to ask their questions of a group of Mentors from our community. Listen to a recent episode.

You may be the right candidates for the OnEdMentors team if you are interested in:

- broadcasting/podcasting
- helping to choose educational topics that are responsive to the various needs of educators
- helping to gather or suggest preservice teachers for the monthly panel Mentoree Lounge
- using social media to connect with educators and communicate the big ideas from the episodes

If you want to learn about teaching through OnEdMentors, reach out to Noa Daniel at noa.daniel@thementoree.com or through social @iamnoadaniel to schedule a time to connect.
