SENIORS met on Monday to discuss graduation requirements and upcoming events. Click for Slideshow...Senior Slideshow

Cudahy's Project Concern is having its Hunger Rumble 5K Run/Walk fundraiser on June 22. This event's organizers are looking for some volunteer help. If you are interested in volunteering or participating, please check out the Flyer.

COMMUNITY SERVICE HOURS are due to the main office by May 1st. Community Service is not a graduation requirement, however many students have given a great deal of themselves in service to their school and community. We would like to recognize these students' efforts with special distinction at graduation. Students accumulating 80 hours or more will be recognized with a special notation on the graduation commencement program and a notation on their diploma. Community Service hours can also be helpful to earn community scholarships. Community Service hours must be submitted to Mrs. Smith in the main office by the end of the school day May 1, 2024. Community Service Forms are available in the Counseling Center. Our counseling aides can help you locate the forms. Any questions please see your counselor.

SENIORS - The Class of 2024 Cudahy High School Elementary Senior Parade is scheduled for Thursday, May 23rd, 10:00 am - noon. In order to participate in the parade, you must be a current CHS senior and one of the following:

- Attended a Cudahy Elementary School
- Currently an Ed-CAP student at one of the cudahy elementary schools
- Have a sibling attending one of the cudahy elementary schools
- Must be on track to graduate

Permission slips are available in the counseling center. Permission slips are due Monday, May 20th.
