

Bio-Sketch of Prof. Narinder Kumar

Prof. Narinder Kumar is working in the Department of Statistics, Panjab University, Chandigarh. He has 35 years of teaching and research experience. Prof. Kumar has made significant contributions in the area of statistical inference, multiple comparison procedures and Applied Statistics. His scientific publications are in journals of national and international repute, and have wide range of applications in engineering, reliability, clinical trials, agriculture etc.

Besides these publications, he has successfully supervised six Ph.D. students and all are working renowned organizations. He is actively providing professional service to various national and international journals as Editor/Guest Editor/Associate Editor. He is also an elected member of (a) National Academy of Sciences (India) and (b) International Statistical Institute, The Netherlands.

Prof. Kumar has also research collaborators with many reputed institutes such as Ohio State University, USA; I.I.T., Kanpur; University of Guelph, Canada; Humboldt University Zu Berlin, Germany etc.