

Title of the Paper: Example Paper for Entrenova Conference (Century Gothic Bold 21)

Author Name1 Author Surname1 (Century Gothic italic 12)

Author Institution1, Author Country1

Author Name2 Author Surname2

Author Institution2, Author Country2

Author Name3 Author Surname3

Author Institution3, Author Country3

Abstract (Century Gothic Bold 16)

Abstract should describe the goal, methodology and conclusion of the paper in 100-200 words. Language of the conference is English. Century Gothic, 11 pt

Keywords: keyword1, keyword2, keyword3, keyword4, keyword5 (max 10 words), Century Gothic, 11 pt

JEL classification: Century Gothic, 11 pt

JEL classification of the paper should be submitted according to the classification scheme available at the link <https://www.aeaweb.org/econlit/jelCodes.php?view=jel>

Acknowledgments (if any): Century Gothic, 11 pt

Introduction (Century Gothic Bold 16)

The introduction should describe the nature of the problem and the current state of knowledge; state the purpose, scope and general methods; and present the hypothesis and/or research goals. The paper should demonstrate an adequate understanding of the relevant literature in the field and cite an appropriate range of literature sources. Any significant work should not be ignored. (The first paragraph under Heading is not intended).

(The second paragraph is intended with a Tab of 0.5). The introduction should state clearly the objective of the paper as well as the context of the investigation. The literature review should be limited to the articles, books and other items that are relevant to the specific research questions addressed. The theoretical framework of the research may contain a full section explaining the motives of the research, identifying a gap in the existing literature of the research, and the potential usefulness of the proposed theoretical basis.

Subheading 1 (Century Gothic, Italic, 14pt)

Figures should have a minimum resolution of 300 dpi. Every figure should have an individual title. Use italic font and capitalise each word (except and, in, of, with, etc.). For example: Region-Profitability Model. Do not upload figures as separate files; instead, embed them into the document.

Figure 1

Region-Profitability Model

Source: Author's illustration

This is an example of how to format your bulleted/numbered lists – please cut this list and paste it at the desired location:

- Region A
- Region B

This is an example of how to format the table in the text. All tables should be numbered (e.g. Table 1, Table 2, Table 3). Every table should have an individual title. Use italic font and capitalise each word (except and, in, of, with, etc.). For example, Relationship between Region and Business Performance

Table 1

Relationship between Region and Business Performance

Business Performance	Region A	Region B
Average Profitability	20%	21%
Average Asset to Liabilities Ratio	25%	53%

Note: Any comments to the table

Source: Deming (2010)

References within the text

Use authors' last names, with the year of publication in parentheses after the last author's name, e.g., "Fettke et al. (2003)"; alternatively, "(Fettke et al., 2003)". If more than one author is referenced, use the first author and "et al.". If more than one article by the same author(s) in the same year is cited, the letters a, b, c, etc. should follow the year. Any direct quotation, regardless of length, must be accompanied by a reference citation that includes a page number.

Methodology (Century Gothic, 16 pt)

The empirical section should provide appropriate citations to the methodology used. The paper's argument should be built on an appropriate base of theory, concepts, or other ideas. The research or equivalent intellectual work on which the paper is based should be well-designed. Methods employed should be appropriate.

Results (Century Gothic, 16 pt)

The paper must include full details of the analyses and results. Results should be presented clearly and analysed appropriately. Conclusions should adequately tie together the other elements of the paper.

Discussion (Century Gothic, 16 pt)

Authors should provide a brief discussion, answer the research question, and note the study's limitations. The results should clearly express the study's case, measured against the technical language of the field and the expected knowledge of the journal's readership. Attention must be paid to clarity of expression and readability, such as sentence structure, jargon use, acronyms, etc.

Conclusion (Century Gothic, 16 pt)

Authors should note the limitations of the study. The conclusion should be based on answering research questions and/or should include the results of the hypothesis investigation. Further research directions should be proposed.

References (Century Gothic, 16 pt)

At the end of the paper, a reference list should be supplied in alphabetical order. Use APA style for reference. Use Century Gothic, 10 pt for reference. Citations not older than the last decade should be used as much as possible.

Please see the instructions at the link:

https://libguides.wpi.edu/citingsources/apa_examples

About the authors

Author1 bio (max 100 words). Author can be contacted at mail@domain.com

Author2 bio (max 100 words). Author can be contacted at mail@domain.com

Author3 bio (max 100 words). Author can be contacted at mail@domain.com

The author's CV should be no longer than 100 words. It should be prepared as a narrative and not in other formats (e.g., bullet points). At the end of the abstract, the author's email should be included.

Example CV:

Jovana Zoroja, Ph.D., is an Assistant Professor at the Faculty of Economics and Business, University of Zagreb, Department of Informatics. She received PhD in Information Systems at the Faculty of Economics and Business Zagreb with the dissertation thesis "Influence of the Information and Communication Technologies on the Competitiveness of the European Union Countries". She was also educated at the LSE – Summer School in London in the field of Business Development and ICT Innovation. She participated in the Erasmus-Preparatory-Visit-Program in Rimini, Italy. Her main research interests are information and communication technology, e-learning, simulation games and simulation modelling. She is actively engaged in a number of science projects (FP7-ICT, bilateral cooperation, and national projects). Jovana Zoroja has published several scientific papers in international and national journals and has participated in many international scientific conferences. The author can be contacted at jzoroja@efzg.hr

