

A Trip to Macau

During the Easter holiday, my family, my grandparents and I went to Macau. We had lots of fun.

On the first day, we waited for about an hour on the Hong Kong-Zhuhai-Macau Bridge shuttle bus. Thankfully, that was the only downside of this trip.

When we arrived, it was not the time to check in to the hotel yet, so we found a restaurant to eat in. After that, we checked in to the hotel and swam in the pool afterwards.

On the second day, we went to Barra to take the LRT. After that my little brother felt sick, so we took the bus back to the hotel. On the bus, my little brother vomited. A person gave him a plastic bag to vomit into. When we were at the hotel, we quickly grabbed our bags and took the Hong Kong-Zhuhai-Macau Bridge shuttle bus back to Hong Kong. Then we took a taxi home.

I learnt that people should help each other. Next time, I need to help others too! What a fascinating experience!
