

Privacy Policy of the Randomizer - Random Generator

§ 1 General provisions

1. This Privacy Policy (hereinafter referred to as the "Privacy Policy") defines the method of collecting, processing and storing personal data necessary to provide services provided via the Randomizer - Random Generator (hereinafter referred to as the "Application") by Kacper Dąbrowicz
2. The User acknowledges that the Administrator of personal data is Kacper Dąbrowicz (hereinafter referred to as the "Administrator").
3. A user is any natural person using the services provided via the Application.
4. The User acknowledges that the provision of personal data by him is voluntary. The User will provide the Administrator with personal data after accepting the Privacy Policy during registration in the Application.
5. Personal data provided by the User may be used by the Administrator to send the User commercial information about the Administrator's news and offers, only if the User has agreed to receive this type of information.
6. The User hereby accepts the rules contained in the Privacy Policy.

§ 2 Data collected automatically

1. The Administrator does not collect personal data without the User's consent, but only data that does not have such an attribute, in particular demographic data and data on the use of the Application. The data described in the previous sentence is collected automatically (hereinafter referred to as "automatically collected data").
2. The data collected automatically does not allow for unambiguous identification of the User.
3. The data collected automatically may be used by the Administrator to improve the quality of the services provided, in particular in the event of an Application error. In the situation described above, the data collected automatically will concern the Application error, including the state of the User's mobile device at the time of the error, identification of the User's mobile device, physical location of the User's mobile device at the time of the error.
4. It is not possible to change or delete data collected automatically.

§ 3 Data collected in order to make contact

1. In cases of contact between the User and the Administrator, as specified in the Regulations, the Administrator will require the User to provide: name and e-mail address (hereinafter: "data collected in order to establish contact").
2. Providing the data collected by the User for the purpose of establishing contact is voluntary, however, it will be the sole basis for establishing return contact between the Administrator and the User and will enable the Administrator to verify the User.

3. The data collected in order to make contact will be used only to enable correct, full and efficient communication between the Administrator and the User.

§ 4 Collection of personal data

1. When registering in the Application and using the Application, the Administrator may demand that the User provide personal data in order to provide services provided by the Administrator via the Application.

2. The User's personal data collected in the manner specified in par. 1 above include, among others: surname, first name, e-mail address, telephone number, place of residence, account information (User name, password, individual User ID), gender, date of birth, images, photos, videos, physical characteristics (weight, height, body dimensions), physical activity data (duration and intensity of training, number of calories burned, distance, pace), contacts and calendar information, location data (GPS).

§ 5 Processing of personal data

1. The User's personal data collected will be used by the Administrator to provide the service selected by the User.

§ 6 Administrator's rights and obligations

1. The Administrator undertakes to process the User's personal data in accordance with the requirements of the Act of August 29, 1997 on the protection of personal data and the Act of July 18, 2002 on the provision of electronic services.

2. The administrator guarantees the provision of appropriate technical and organizational measures to ensure the security of personal data being processed, in particular preventing unauthorized third parties from accessing them, or their processing in violation of the provisions of generally applicable law, preventing the loss of personal data, damage or destruction.

3. The User's personal data will be stored as long as it is necessary for the Administrator to provide services provided via the Application.

4. The Administrator has the right to share the User's personal data with: subsidiaries; to third parties in the event of the sale of all or part of its shares to them, or in the event of the Administrator's merger with a third party; other third parties that have accepted the Privacy Policy, provided that the Administrator has concluded an agreement with him necessary for the Administrator to provide services provided via the Application; competent authorities that will report the need to provide personal data based on the appropriate grounds of generally applicable law.

§ 7 Rights and obligations of the User

1. The user has the right to access his personal data after sending an e-mail requesting access.

2. The user may at any time modify, change, supplement or delete the personal data provided, after sending an e-mail requesting access.

3. In the event of permanent deletion by the User of personal data necessary for the Administrator to provide services provided via the Application, the User will lose the ability to use these services.

4. The Administrator reserves the right to make changes to the Privacy Policy, about which he will inform the User via the Application. If the User does not agree to the changes, he is obliged to permanently remove the Application from his mobile device.
