✓ NEW BUSINESS

Josh wants to steal California (the entire state?) and get them to support the bid; cloak & dagger; Sarah mentioned getting letters of support and cautioned against ***** it up.

I (Brittany) went to go grab the new people's numbers and it seems like a wee bit of drama broke out about going soft or hard on the banner; conversation ultimately turned to working together with ASCY; Collin spoke for Max about the bid packet & bid packet channel, Max wants to sync up with Merch & Web to coordinate the aesthetic.

Taylor suggested putting flashing light warnings on flyers.
