

The Day I Decided to Become Sunshine

By Vanessa Brantley-Newton

The day I decided to become sunshine
in my own world everything changed
I decided to shine my little light into the darkest corners of my community
I decided to be a light by holding a door open for others to come through And to shine the light of kindness into my every move
The day I decided to become sunshine
I felt like I could change the world