AMBASSADOR EDUCATION GROUP
Chiang Mai – Thailand
September 2022
EHS Department

ENVIRONMENTAL, HEALTH and SAFETY COMMITTEE CHARTER

1. Introduction

The AMBASSADOR Education Group of schools (AEG) is committed to protecting the environment, providing a safe place to work to ensure the health and well-being of our students, employees, visitors, contractors and any other stakeholders. To that effect, AEG has established an EHS Committee to provide a consultative forum that can effectively address EHS matters as well as to oversee implementation of Environment and Social Management System (ESMS).

2. Role

AEG's EHS Committee will assist the Executive Committee (Exco) by:

- overseeing implementation of ESMS;
- monitoring key risks to the group in the areas of EHS and how they are managed;
- ensuring AEG's compliance with relevant laws and regulations, and AEG's policies, procedures and practices
- monitoring the culture that is being promoted within the group to promote compliance with, responsibility and leadership for EHS;
- establishing and tracking measurable EHS objectives and targets, including recognising and celebrating their achievement;
- monitoring the impact of changes in EHS legislation and stakeholder expectations; and
- undertaking activities to promote EHS and well-being practices amongst our employees, and others that may be affected by our activities.

3. Functions and Activities

The functions of the Committee are:

- To oversee implementation of ESMS;
- To provide advice and make recommendations to the Exco on matters relating to EHS and well-being, and to monitor AEG's performance and compliance in this area;
- To provide a forum for reviewing strategies and agreeing priorities designed to ensure the health, safety and well-being of students, employees, visitors, contractors and any other relevant stakeholders.

- To ensure an effective and appropriate consultation process is in place within AEG to discuss EHS and well-being matters.
- To ensure effective and appropriate communication channels are in place within AEG for the dissemination of EHS and well-being information.
- To instigate, monitor and review EHS and well-being programs within AEG (but not limited to) the following:
 - o Compliance with relevant EHS legislation;
 - o Workplace audits and inspections;
 - o Hazard identification, assessment and control (i.e., Risk Assessments);
 - o Emergency preparedness;
 - o Accident/incident reporting and investigation; and
 - o Employee, and other relevant stakeholder training

4. Membership

The Committee, by resolution at a meeting, decides whether it wishes to invite a person or persons as Observers to a meeting of the Committee.

Committee members will cease to be a member if they resign from their employment or the Committee, and if the members are not re-elected.

If a vacancy occurs in the Committee, the member will be replaced by:

• A person who volunteers from the relevant department, or by someone who is nominated by their peers, from the relevant department
