VOTING BY MAIL - SHARPIE ALERT

I talked to the Maricopa County Elections Department today and they said NOT to use Sharpie or Felt-tip pens. Your mail-in ballot states: Mark your ballot with a pencil or Black Ball Point Pen (No Red Ink). The reason is that Sharpie and Felt-tip pens can bleed through the ballot and the scanners used to read your ballot might not be able to read it. So when you fill in the arrow for Ed Winkler for Congress please use a pencil or Black Ball Point Pen. If you are going to the polls they have special pens for you to use on the ballots they provide to you.

OK. So both Michigan AND Wisconsin have VERTICAL LINES where Biden votes are injected in.

I smell VICTORY 🇺🇸🇺🇸

The Michigan situation was a TYPO.

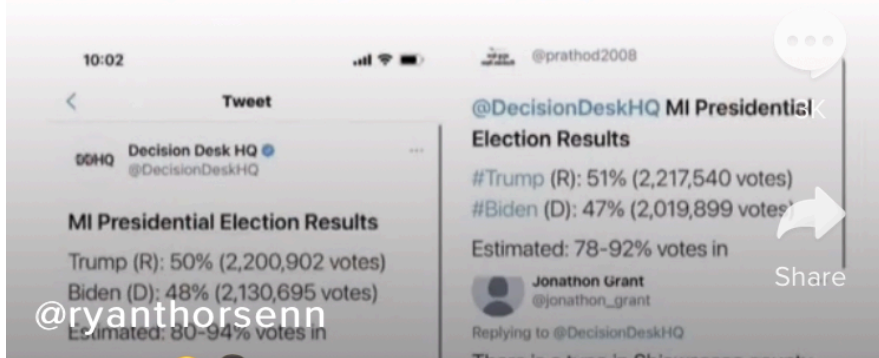

The massive jump in Biden votes out of nowhere is because Shiawassee county reported "153710" when it SHOULD have been "15371."

As you can see below, thankfully, the error was fixed.

Biden had 2,130,695 (at 4:04 AM)

Then 2,019,899 (5:19 AM)

WISCONSIN REPORTING 101+% VOTER TURNOUT!

3,170,206 Votes Counted.

3,129,000 Registered Voters.

The Democrats have officially committed
#Election2020 fraud. This crime is a felony and falls
under 18 US Code Chapter 115: Sedition & Treason.

State	% of Population	Number of Registered Voters
Maine	77.10%	828,000
Mississippi	72.90%	1,599,000
Michigan	71.20%	5,453,000
North Dakota	70.90%	397,000
Kentucky	70.90%	2,389,000
Minnesota	70.80%	3,000,000
Missouri	70.60%	3,299,000
Wisconsin	70.50%	3,129,000

@RealCandaceO

Every mail-in-ballot needs to be audited in MI, WI, & PA.

It's that simple.

If the Democrats are being honest and legitimate, they will not fight this audit at all.

The statistical impossibility of 100% of 140k overnight ballots going to Joe
Biden has made this necessary.

With the final vote in dispute, states with Democratic governors but Republican legislatures — including the key battleground states of Pennsylvania, North Carolina, Michigan and Wisconsin, the latter two of which have already been called for Biden — could conceivably end up dispatching two distinct groups of Electoral College voters, reported Marie Claire, citing a study by election scholar Edward B. Foley.

In that scenario, those states would have two competing sets of electoral votes, and, as president of the Senate, Republican Vice President Mike Pence would be tasked with unraveling the situation.

He could opt to throw out both sets of votes from those states, meaning neither candidate could reach the 270 electoral votes needed to clinch the presidency.

In that event, the members of Congress would vote for president and vice president.

The House of Representatives would vote for president, with each state's delegation getting one shared vote, and a simple majority of 26 votes needed to elect.

It's vital that Governors maintain restrictions on businesses until after the November Elections because economic recovery will help Trump be re-elected. A few business closures or job losses is a small price to pay to be free from his presidency. #KeepUsClosed

USPS worker arrested at Canadian border with bin of mail, undelivered ballots

New York Post - 16 hours ago

An upstate USPS employee was arrested Tuesday while crossing the US-Canada border with hundreds of envelopes and other undelivered mail — including several absentee ballots.

The Buffalo mailman, who was caught with over 800 pieces of mail inside his trunk that he had failed to deliver, said he had ended up on a bridge between the US and its neighbor to the north by accident, the Buffalo News reported.
