

All Shall Burn by Elaine kicks in as we are live from the CFG Bank Arena in Baltimore, Maryland. The fans are cheering for this as we are seeing people walk in as always. The first two we see are Luciana Verdoza walking in with her husband, Calvin Verdoza as she wants to defeat Kelly Penkzee-Nelson once and for all to move on. Next, we see Kelly Penkzee-Nelson come in and walk in. Dora Morsa, who has a sick grin across her face, sees her, but KPN walks away. Alexandria Duvall with Adrianna Rivers Lockley is the next one in as she has the biggest match of her career and that's going for the 5BW World Championship. Her opponent, Bridget Johnson walks in as she has the 5BW World Championship with her as she looks to retain the championship over Alexandria. This show is going to be an intense one as we are going to be kicking off with the pre-show.

In the back, we see Larissa Johnson getting ready for this match-up as Gina Roux comes up to her and asks her if she has time to talk. Larissa looks at her and shakes her head as she says that if this is about Shane, then she needs to stop right there. She defeated him a couple of weeks ago and now she does not have a clue why she has to go against him again, Emerson was the one to do this and now she needs to go out there again! Larissa says that she's starting to get old with this shit and walks away for her match, keeping this interview short.

Shane Pasquelle and Emerson Palmer are walking in the halls for their match as Emerson says tonight, he needs to beat her once and for all and send Larissa to an early retirement! Shane does not say anything at all as he looks at her, as Emerson keeps on talking about this and really says that Shane needs to do this tonight. Shane snaps out of it and says that he got this and is going to send Larissa away for GOOD and out of his hair! Hell, maybe this company would finally allow him to be on the main shows instead of being made into a joke as he walks away.

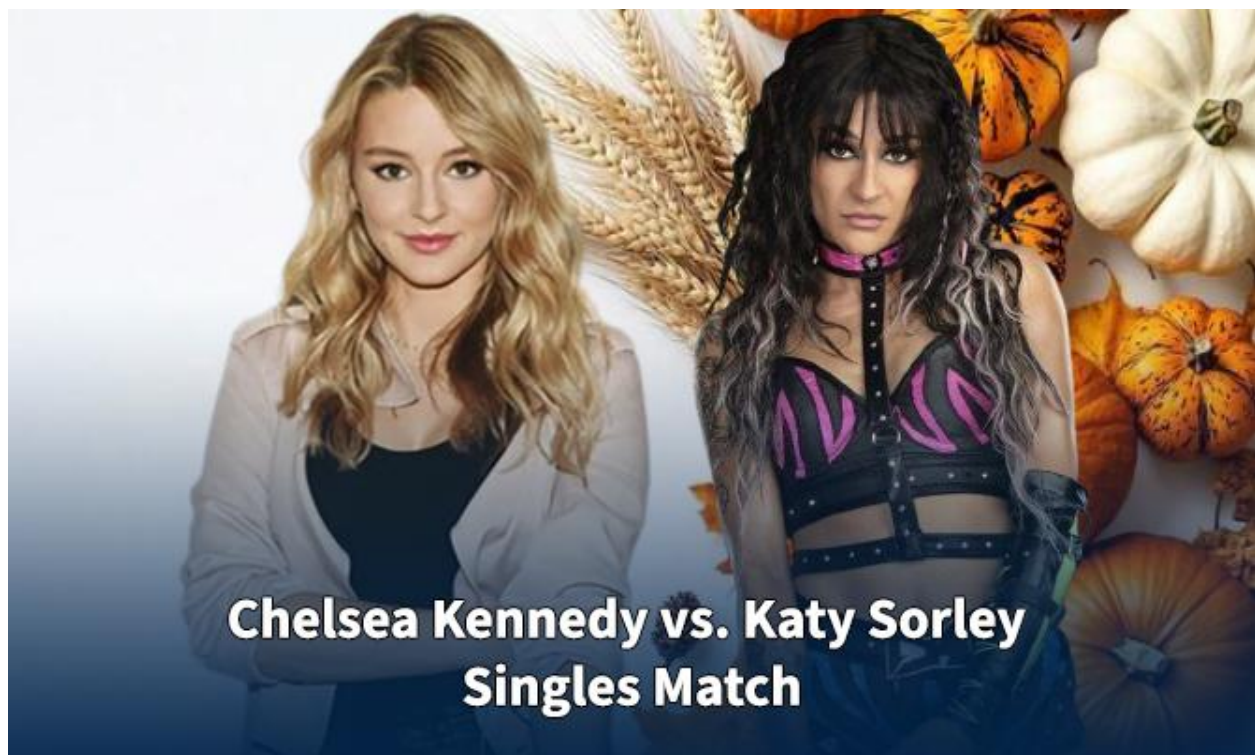

In

Shane Pasquella wanted to send a message to Larissa Johnson as Larissa Johnson wanted to send a message to Shane. The bottom line of this is they wanted to be DONE with one another. Shane and Larissa go at it in the ring as Larissa is getting the best of him. She throws him out of the ring as Shane lands on the ground! The fans are cheering as Larissa leaps over and goes for an over-the-top rope senton on her as the fans are cheering as she tosses him back in the ring! Larissa comes up and kicks Shane in the face, but Shane kicks her right in the knee! The fans are booing for this as Larissa goes on the ground as he starts kicking her bad leg! Shane picks her up and tosses her in the corner as he begins to kick her down! The referee is asking Larissa if she's OK as Larissa says that she wants to keep on going, but Larissa nods yes and goes after him, but falls as the fans are wondering if she's OK. Shane is stomping down on her as Larissa is holding her knee. Shane goes after her and locks in a submission hold as Larissa is screaming out in pain! Shane is telling her to tap, but Larissa does not want to give up! She breaks it and gets back as she comes back, but again, the knee. In the end, Shane Pasquella got the win for him and ended it right then and there. Shane has finally defeated Larissa Johnson and rolls out of the ring to join Emerson Palmer as they are celebrating like they won the World Series.

We see Katy Sorley walking in the back as she's ready for her matchup. We see people looking at her and wondering what is going on and why she's not here to support Prodigal Inc. Katy doesn't do anything at all as she sees everyone looking at her until Gina Roux comes up again and asks her how she's feeling about this match coming up against Chelsea Kennedy. Katy turns to her and says that she's ready for what is about to go down as she says that Chelsea is tough but she's way tougher than her. Gina asks why she is not with Prodigal Inc right now as

Katy says that she needs them to handle their things right now. Katy walks away as she knows that something is up

Chelsea Kennedy is walking to her match as she comes across her boyfriend, one half of the 5BW World Tag Team Champions, Alex Bell. Alex asks her if she's ready to take on Katy Sorley as Chelsea says that she's born ready for this, but in this case, she needs to ask him a question. After what Anya and Brittanj have done to Brett as of late, is he ready for this? As Alex was about to say something, Brett Elliot comes out and says that he's ready to take them down! After what happened to him, it makes him pissed off even more that they think he's weak! He's not weak! Brett looks to Alex and then to Chelsea and says that he cannot handle this as he grabs something and smashes it towards the wall. Chelsea looks at Alex and shakes her head. She says that he needs to be calmed down as she walks for her match. Alex goes to get Brett and heads for the match.

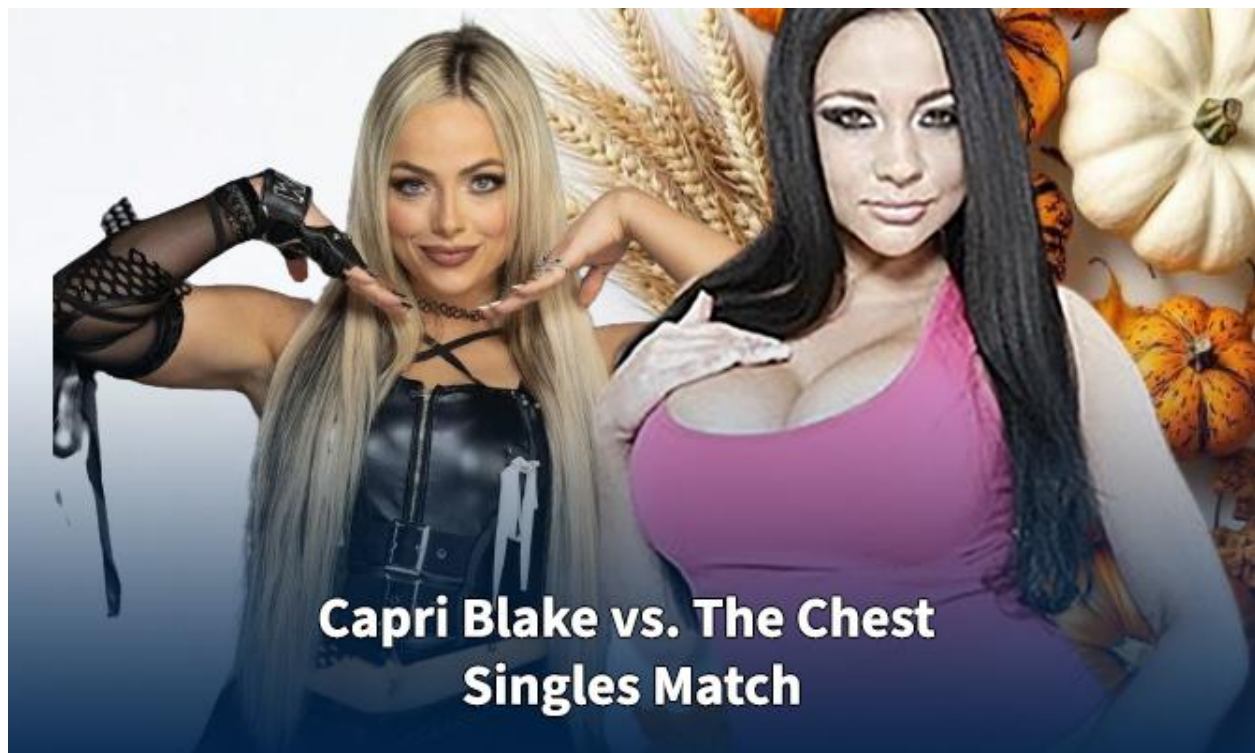

Chelsea Kennedy and Katy Sorley were going to go at it as this had big possible implications. Should Katy win, she could get the next shot at the Festivus Underground Championship, but since Chelsea has been a fighting champion as of late, she doesn't want to let go of the championship! Both Katy and Chelsea fought in the ring, but Katy was the one that kned her in the gut as Chelsea went down! Katy attacked her and grabbed her as she flung her across the ring! She landed on the ground as Chelsea was holding her gut as Katy was kicking her, but Chelsea fought back against her in the ring. Chelsea punched Katy, but Katy was punching her back. Chelsea got back at her, but Katy got her and took her down with a DDT! She was going to end this off in the ring as she waited for her to get up! Chelsea gets up as Katy goes flying, but Chelsea catches her and goes for the Heartbreaker! Chelsea Kennedy had this in the bag as she pinned Katy and wins the match as the fans are cheering for this! Chelsea gets her championship, cracks her head and rolls out of the ring as the fans are cheering for her.

We see Northern City Saints walking in as Capri Blake will be the one facing off against the Chest as Leilani has the biggest chance tonight. Leilani goes into her locker room as Capri looks at Brooklyn. Brooklyn says that if there is shady business, she will come out and help her! Capri says that she shouldn't worry about her. She has this as Capri walks into the locker room. Brooklyn nods her head and says something as she walks away as the fans are wondering what is about to go down.

Next, we see The Order of the Chest with the Chest as Lacey Moreau is getting situated. She tells the three that The Chest needs out of the locker room and says that she needs to talk with Lacey, alone. They all leave as Lacey looks at her. The Chest says that tonight, both of them need to send a message and now with Lacey having that Electric World Championship shot, she needs to send a message clear that she needs to be a winner and that's why she wanted her in the group! There was a reason The Chest believes in her. Lacey nods as The Chest says nodding is not good enough. Lacey Moreau says that she's prepared for this and will shut up Tina and Veronica along with shocking the world. The Chest stands up, eyes her and says "good, now watch what I do do Capri Blake" as she walks out, leaving Lacey getting ready.

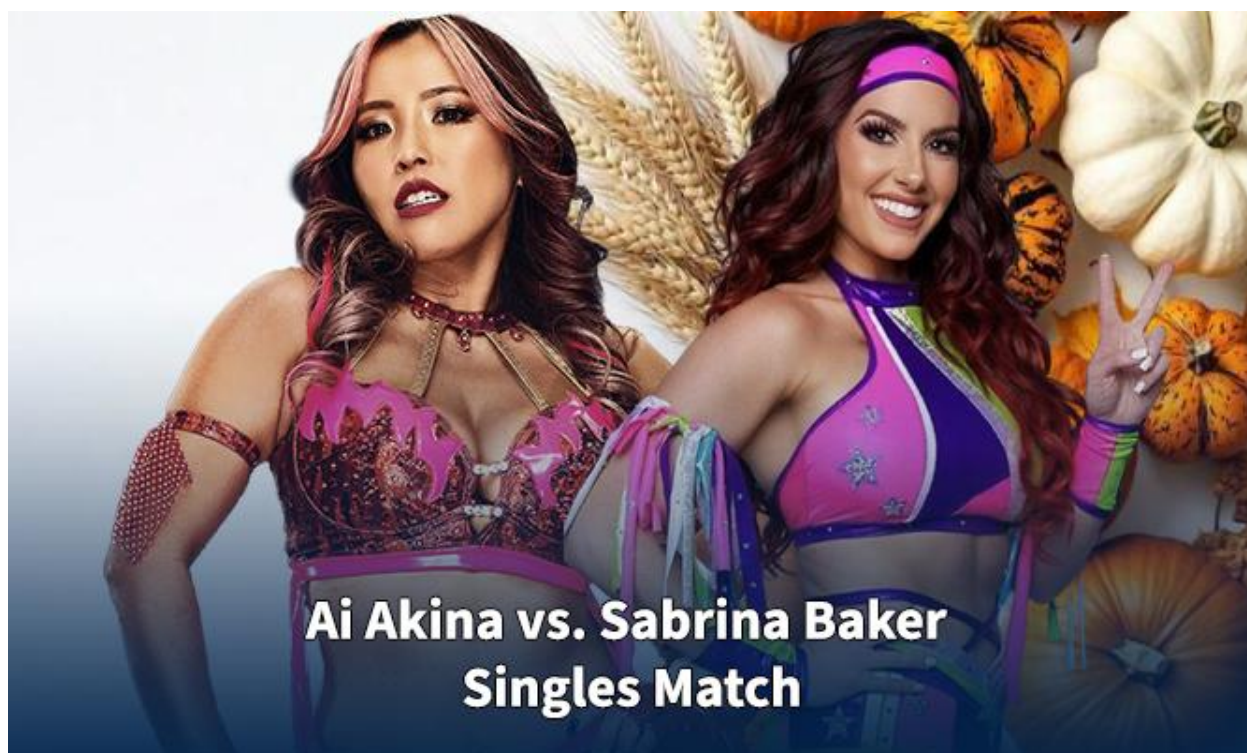

Next, we saw the Chest and Capri Blake go at it in the ring as the Chest and Capri went at it. The Chest was going back and forth with her, but Capri didn't want down at from this fight! Capri didn't want to even be embarrassed by her, but the Chest found ways to fight back against her! She was taking control of the match, but Capri tosses her out of the ring, leading to her falling on the ground! Capri rolled out of the ring and started to attack her, even throwing the Chest into the barricade! The Chest was holding her tit as she was screaming at the referee. Capri rolled back in the ring and then rolled out again, but the Chest clocked her in the face! The fans are booing at this as she tosses her back in the ring. The Chest says that she's going to end this in the ring, and waits for her to get back up! She does as the Chest tries to go for Triple D-Light, but Capri gets out of it and goes for her finisher! The Chest falls on the ground as Capri goes to pin her, but The Order of the Chest pulls her out of the ring! The fans are booing, but we see Brooklyn Blackwell come out of the back and try to attack them, but it's not enough! Capri Blake takes them down as the referee is telling her to get out! Capri rolls in, but the Chest CRACKS her in the face with something and puts it back in her top. Capri is stumbling as she goes for the Top Rope Fuckinator and The Chest pins her and gets the three count! The fans are not happy as the Chest just won the match! She rolls out of the ring as she's joined by her group as she raises her hands in the air and lets out a roar.

In the back, we see Ai Akina say something as she's watching what's going down. Just then, Veronica Rachele, who's on those scooters, holding up her ankle, rolls on by and sees what's going on. Veronica says that she shares the same sentiments as her, but right now, Ai needs to focus on Sabrina. She knows about Sabrina and knows how she can work. She sees the good and then she sees the violent side of her, but Veronica says as of late, she feels like Sabrina is going to let that out. Ai says that she knows what it's like to be violent and knows how to combat when it comes to getting violent. Veronica says fair enough as she rolls into the locker room.

Ryan Franks is outside of his wife Sabrina Baker's locker room as Gina Roux comes up and asks her if she has time to chat. Ryan looks in and he asks her, but Sabrina says not this time. It's clear as day that Sabrina does not want to talk as it looks like the stuff going on lately is affecting her. Gina asks if she's OK, but Ryan shakes his head and says that his wife is hard to read sometimes, but she knows that winning this match needs to put her back in contention.

Next, we see Ai Akina and Sabrina Baker go at it. Two women with issues that are going on! Sabrina was coming in hard at Ai, but Ai slapped her right across the face as she took her down! Ai was beating her down she was Lacey and the Chest combined, but Sabrina was not the enemy at all in this! Sabrina pushed her off and told her that she was not the enemy in this! Ai did not care and went back, but that caused Sabrina to have rage and get her back as she was leveling up with her! The fans were cheering as both of these ladies were smacking the shit out of each other, which also caused Ai to give her a backsuplex! Sabrina landed hard on the ground as Ai kicked her in the head! She rolled her over and pinned her, but Sabrina was able to get out of this and locked in a submission on the ground! Sabrina had this locked in, but Ai was able to get out of it and went for the Lovely Flower, but Sabrina was able to get out of it and go for the Remix 2 and pin her in the ring! Sabrina Baker got the win over Ai Akina as she had a huge knot in her head that's going to bruise. Sabrina looked at her and shook her head as she rolled out of the ring as made her motives clear about something, she's not going OUT in 2025, she's going to start the way she came in and that was World Champion as she heads to the back.

In the back, we see Jefferson Jackson with Allison Mayberry as Jefferson asked him about her match coming up against Interm General Manager, Hayley Halsey. Allison Mayberry says it's about time she's in the ring against her. The fact that someone like HER is the general manager while Candice Carter is out baffles the hell out of her and the fact that she has to put Prodigal Inc through hell, is fucking bullshit! This is not going to end well for her and all of her mistakes that SHE MADE is going to bit her back in the ass! Prodigal Inc is going to come out on top and She's going to take control of the Festivus Brand! She then tells Jefferson to move the hell out of the way as he shakes his head.

Hayley Halsey is in the back as we see Jamey Caresalle come up. Jamey says that they never really met, and this is an awkward way to meet, knowing the stances with this match. Jamey says that her going through this is a load of bullshit, and the fact that Casey and Nicole want to strip her, even makes him sick even more! Hayley says that she knew what she was going to get herself into, and she knows how to stop this. She has more ring experience than Allison and plans on not only putting a ass kicking, she's going to put a belt to ass to her! Hayley tells Jamey it was nice meeting him and says that she needs to handle the business tonight as Jamey nods and says good luck to her, but Hayley says that she does not need luck at all. This is revenge.

The main event of the night is Allison Mayberry going against Hayley Hasley in a flag match. The fans are ready for this as Allison is mocking her! Hayley comes right after her and tries to go for the flag, but she gets taken down as the fans are cheering for this! Hayley is laying it into her as the fans are cheering, but Allison pushes her off and gets on top of her! She's trying to strip her already, but Hayley pushes her down and gets on top of her! Allison again tries to go to run, but Hayley catches her and goes for a bulldog! The fans are cheering as she takes her down and takes off her belt and puts it to her ass as the Baltimore crowd is loving this! The fans are cheering for her as Allison is screaming as she knows that she's going to be sore in the morning! Hayley walks over and tries to rip off her top and tries to humiliate her, but Allison kicks her down! Hayley is getting up as Allison takes a playbook out of NPT's book with a super kick!

Hayley falls as Allison walks over and waits for her to get up! Hayley is back up as Allison is waving, as now she takes a playbook out of Casey Holliday's book with the Stock Plunge! Hayley is down as Allison says that her time is up! Allison runs over and tries to climb up as the fans are booing, but Hayley comes up and takes her off as she goes for a facebuster! The fans are cheering as Hayley goes up and tries to go for the flag, but Allison grabs her foot and Hayley kicks her off. She looks at Allison getting up and goes for a moonsault on her and lands on Allison! The fans are cheering for this, but Hayley says that she's not done with this! Hayley grabs her and goes for her finisher on Allison with the fans cheering. Hayley Halsey goes up and grabs the flag and wins the match! The fans are cheering for this as she jumps down with her job intact.

As Hayley Halsey is getting up and raising the flag from behind, Allison Mayberry comes from behind and takes her down! The fans are booing loudly as Allison is heated about losing, which causes Prodigal Inc, Nicole Peyton Turner, and Casey Holliday to come down as Casey has a sick smirk on her face! Casey yells it's time for HUMILATION as Allison goes behind her and takes off her top! The fans are booing for this as Allison waves it and hands it to Casey as she's about to go for the pants next! As Nicole is pinning her down along with Casey, Alison gets her pants off and hands them to Nicole! Nicole and Casey are yelling that this is going to go even further, but before Allison does, Minka Carter and Alana Alvarez come running out of the back and stop this from happening as Prodigal Inc rolls out of the ring! Casey and Nicole are yelling that in a few hours, this is going to end with them as Alana is asking for a towel as Hayley covers up. We are only in the pre show and Prodigal Inc along with Minka and Alana already want to throw down as we end the preshow.
