

First Name Last Name

Teacher's Name

Class

Date

Title

Start a new paragraph in prose whenever you switch: 1) Topic, 2) Time, 3) Setting, or 4)

Speaker. (Guideline)

Three puppies went out for a walk on a bright sunny morning. (Topic/Setting/Time)

Later that afternoon, the brown puppy sat down to lick his paws. (Topic)

The red puppy noticed, stopped, and said, "Hey, Brown, are you okay?" (Speaker)

"My paws hurt!" exclaimed Brown. (Speaker)

"What's going on?" inquired Spots, the black and white spotted puppy, turning around halfway down the lane from them. (Speaker)

"Okay, I'm ready," said Brown, getting back up and moving along with his brothers.
(Speaker)

The three puppies made their way slowly through the town, and at length came to a park.
(Setting)

