(H2) Understanding Accessory Dwelling Units (ADUs)

If you're thinking about adding an ADU to your property in La Jolla, it is important to understand what they are and how they can benefit you. An ADU, or Accessory Dwelling Unit, is a secondary living space that is added to an existing property. ADUs are commonly added to a property to provide additional living space for family members, as a rental unit for extra income, or as a guest house.

They can be designed and built in a variety of styles and sizes to match the existing property and meet the needs of the homeowner.

ADUs are a great investment opportunity because they can increase the value of the property and provide a source of rental income. Plus, ADUs can be a sustainable living option because they can be designed to be energy-efficient and environmentally-friendly.

(H2) Benefits of Adding an ADU to Your Property

There are many benefits to adding an ADU to your property in La Jolla. ADUs can provide extra living space, rental income, and tax breaks. They can also increase the value of your property.

Here are some of the benefits of adding an ADU to your property in La Jolla:

- I. Extra living space: An ADU can provide extra living space for your family or guests. This can be especially helpful if you have a growing family or if you frequently have guests staying with you.
- II. Rental income: If you choose to rent out your ADU, you can generate additional income. This can be a great way to offset the cost of your mortgage or to pay for other expenses.
- III. Tax breaks: In some cases, you may be eligible for tax breaks if you add an ADU to your property. This is something to discuss with your tax advisor.
- IV. Increased property value: ADUs can increase the value of your property. This is because they provide additional living space and can be used for a variety of purposes, such as rental income or a home office.
