

Do most people in your country prefer traditional medicine, modern medicine, or a combination of the two?

Do you think that teas and natural herbs can be just as effective or more effective for treating certain illness than modern medicine?

Do you have to pay for medicine in your country? What about other types of health care?

Should doctors be allowed to prescribe a lethal dose of medicine to patients who want to end their lives?

Should doctors be allowed to prescribe marijuana? If so, to whom and for what reasons?

Have you heard any stories of faith healers? If so, tell about one.

What should happen to a person who is caught using illegal drugs? What about selling them?

Can a person become addicted to prescription drugs? Which ones? Are there any illegal drugs that a person can't become addicted to?

Do you think there are any legal drugs that should be illegal? What about illegal ones that should be legal?

What type of treatment would you recommend to a person who has the flu?

Do you feel uncomfortable using medicine from a foreign country?

Do you consider alcohol a drug? Do you drink?

Do you think men are more likely to use illegal drugs than women? Why or why not? What about legal ones?

Why do you think so many famous people use drugs?

What would you recommend to treat a hangover?

Why do you think it takes so long for certain prescription drugs to become available in the US?