

“Why do I always feel this way?”

“Why is this happening to me?”

“Why is it SO hard to control my emotions?”

We’ve all had at least one of these questions cross our minds before.

Navigating your emotional ups and downs can be hard sometimes.

Especially when you have certain placements.

It’s easy to feel like you’re just walking through the dark

Completely lost...

Without having any sense of direction, or knowing what to do.

You want to be happy, you want to be fulfilled

You want to finally “figure things out” and understand who you truly are.

But no matter what you do, you keep tripping over the same obstacles over and over again

Having to experience the same lesson 100 times before you finally learn from it

The truth is...

At the end of the day, it’s hard to go through all this on your own, especially when you have no idea where to even start.

But it doesn’t have to be this way

You don’t have to walk this journey alone anymore,

What if you had somebody to guide you,

- To help bring some clarity into your life and help you realize what the next step TRULY is?
- Help you better understand yourself and why you do what you do, why you think what you think
- A group where you could actually feel accepted
- A group that is truly safe where you can just be you

What if you had a supportive group

A group where you could actually feel accepted for once

A group that is truly safe where you can just be you

Safe from judgment, safe from hate, safe from criticism

A powerful group capable of supporting your personal growth

Led not by an angel, but by someone who's been in your shoes before

Who knows how you feel, who knows who you are at your core, who's made the same mistakes as you

Who learned how to overcome those mistakes and transmute past trauma into present peace, happiness, and joy

Open your eyes, and see the truth, you're no longer dreaming. That group is not a fantasy

That group is real, as real as you and I, real enough to touch
