I am all those things

Six days before 94's Christmas, I was born,

I spent nameless for three days, because my mother thought I was a boy.

They called me Bruna

That means 'dark' in German

For me, darkness reflects uncertainty

So I can define myself as: "High level of confusion"

Maybe I'm the kind of person that if every day you would ask me the same thing, I will always answer it differently

I Change my mind very fast

I'm from a town of 20 000 inhabitants

I am the youngest daughter of three sisters and a single mother

Without men in our house but it has not been missing

I come from a traditional evangelical family

I believe in God but not in churches

I prefer just me and God, God and me.

Now I'm living in Teresina, and here is very hot

I hate the heat, but the people are cool

I like to study

I'm terrible at calculating

I studied three semesters of biology then I gave up

My heart is from a girl called: MUSIC

I love singing and all I am boils down to my dream of wanting to be a singer

My mother hates it

But you know, I don't care!

Romantic movies, horror or drama

I am music passionate

The Wizard of Oz and The Rocky Horror Picture Show are my favorites

I Like old movies in black and white

Love the glamour of Audrey Hepburn, Judy Garland or Judy Andrews

I like contemporary and futuristic books

Harry Potter, Twilight and The Hunger Games

The real world is boring

That's why I give more attention to what is happening in TV series

Gossip girl, One Tree Hill or Skins (UK)

I like teenager's dramas

Maybe because I'm a exaggerated drama

Taylor Swift and Katy Perry are amazing

Lana Del Ray's genius

And Green Day is, well... Green Day (awesome!)

I hate my country music

I don't know and neither want to learn to dance samba

I miss cooking for my friends

I like to feel hungry

Wish I could swim, but I'm afraid

I have an notebook with 138 songs

I am dependent on folic acid (anemia)

I want to study at NYU

NY is perfect and we were born for each other

I love coats and use them even in this awful heat

I feel cool while speaking English

When in shower, I always sing Lady Gaga

Well, I think that's it

I am all these things and they make like this

I'm happy for that.
