The citation quick guide can be found at: http://www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/tools\_citationguide/citation-guide-1.html Example for Books references: Werner Menski, Comparative Law in a Global Context, The Legal Systems of Asia and Africa (Cambridge: Cambridge University Press, 2006), 16.

At the end of the paragraph, the author/s should end with a comment on the significance concerning identification of the issue and objective of the research.<sup>2</sup> This article analyses the comparative competition law related to abuse of a dominant market position using strategy of predatory pricing by undertakings in the European Union (hereinafter 'EU'). For this purpose, a precise case study of the Valio case has been made.<sup>3</sup> Antti Aine, Adjunct Professor of general competition law at the University of Turku as expert in field of European Competition Law, has been interviewed for this article.<sup>4</sup> Also, EU law on predatory pricing has been compared to the United States' predatory pricing law.

Therefore, this article explores the following research questions; whether EU Competition law policy is already excessively restrictive, and if so, what is the effect on the business development of undertakings with only one nationally dominant market position and, whether the products, which are legally classified as belonging to different product markets, belong de facto to the same product market in case of being fully interchangeable with each other?

2. Legal Material and Methods (bold, 12 pt)

All legal materials, supporting documents and methods must be stated clearly and briefly. The method used is not limited to normative juridical method. Method other than normative juridical method should mention time and place of the research (if applicable) and the focus of the research in first part.

3. Results and Discussion (bold, 12 pt)

Result and discussion be written in same part. They should be presented continuously start from main result until supporting results and equipped with a discussion. Figures and Tables (if any) should be put in the same part of this section and should be actively edited by the editors.

3.1. Sub-heading of the discussion 1

Following main headings should be provided in the manuscript while preparing. The separation between main headings, sub-headings and sub-sub headings should be numbered in the manuscript with following example:
