INFORMATION PROVIDED BY APPLICANT OR EMPLOYEE

Policy Code: 7110

March 21, 2022

All information provided to the human resources office by an applicant for employment or by an employee must be true, accurate, and complete to the best of that applicant's or employee's knowledge. Presenting information to the human resources office that is intended to defraud, falsify, materially misrepresent or conceal the truth will be considered just cause for terminating the application process or, as a violation of board policy, grounds for dismissing an employee.
