

About this little goblin

Hey! My name is Lyssa, but you probably know me as Lolly. Honestly, either or is fine. I'm the writer behind condomglitter & iinfinities on tumblr, as well as a generous handful of other, abandoned blogs. I am;

- ♥ thirty ~~flirty & thriving~~ - so please, god, no minors
- ♥ in general, a fucking mess
- ♥ disabled & mentally ill
- ♥ living in the hellscape of the eastern time zone
- ♥ a she/they canadian, generally pink flavoured

To make things nice, easy, & tidy, I've made this document to contain my rules, about, and... whatever else I feel like tossing in here. Scroll on below to find out what horrors await !

Rules && Guidelines

General Details

- ◇ I'm busy as fuck, my dudes - not to mention disabled and mentally ill. My activity will be slow.
- ◇ This blog is selective & only RPs with mutuals.
- ◇ Heavy themes will be present, but I tag things liberally. Request specific ones if you need them! For me, my squicks & triggers are all lumped under the big, bad, usual suspects, so I don't really have anything specific to request - but I will bring specific notice to tagging and not writing in depth about spiders, because they are god's worst creation & I don't even like imagining them :C
- ◇ I'm on Discord. Ask me and I'll add you!
- ◇ The important thing about any thread or plot ideas is that we discuss it. I want to make ideas work! Let's do it together.
- ◇ I write an oc so obviously I am oc friendly lmfao
- ◇ Hit me up ooc if we're writing together! It is 10000% absolutely okay, and even welcomed && requested. I don't really want to RP with complete strangers - I want to make friends and rp with them, you know?

- ◇ In fact, if we don't speak at all ooc && you notice I'm acting kinda... shy, and standoffish?? That's why. I'm busy assuming you hate me and trying not to make it your problem. That's your warning, I guess? IDK. I'm trying my best, lmao.
- ◇ Please reblog memes & aesthetics from the source. Thanks!
- ◇ I don't want to be involved with drama. I have enough of my own irl lmfao please leave me in peace
- ◇ I am not hip to trends, slang, the youth – nothin. I'm an old lady. I'm doing my best. Please be patient with the elderly, thank you so very much –
- ◇ If you're sending an ask in to iinfinities, please make sure to specify which muse it's for! Tks
- ◇ I am absolutely down for crossovers, AU's – literally whatever. Just ask ! We can figure it out ~
- ◇ I will never, ever, be upset that you're dropping a thread. Not, like, in the mad at you way, anyways. I may be disappointed because I like writing with you, but I'm not gonna hate you or anything psychotic like that. You come first. Not writing or online stuff or anything else. Do what's best for you!!!
- ◇ In terms of responding to messages, if I don't answer?? It's not you. It's me. I'm terrified. I promise.

Writing & Stuff

- ◇ I write a lot. A lot. That said, I will largely mirror what you give me, and work off of your energy. Don't feel pressured, man. If I follow you, I want to write with you, exactly as you usually write.
- ◇ Don't reblog threads you aren't a part of – if you'd like to hop in on an idea, or something, hit me up OOC & we can come up with something!
- ◇ Please put replies to ask prompts in a new thread so I can keep track of them (and so they won't look ugly, lmao)
- ◇ Aside from not extending an ask, please feel free to do literally whatever you would like with your formatting! If I can't read something, I'll let you know.
- ◇ I need to at least vaguely plot things before we head into a big thread. I can improv little interactions, silly little bits, but actual threads? Help me out, man. I like to have a general idea of where we're goin'.
- ◇ COMMUNICATE WITH ME. Please? Like... if you want to plot, if you don't want to write a specific thread any more, if you'd like to add a plot twist, if you want to go in a different direction, if my last reply didn't give you enough to work with – I can't read your mind & there's no way I can just do what you want without you saying so. Plus, RP is a collaborative thing !! If I wanted to write && make all of the decisions by myself, I'd just be writing a book.

Shipping

- ◇ I'll ship anything with chemistry, but there must be that sense of chemistry – even if we're playing characters who are in a relationship in canon.

- ◇ I really, really prefer to test the waters with a non-shipping thread before committing to a particular ship, so I can see how our characters interact & how we interact. If our writing style doesn't mesh and our characters aren't vibing? It won't happen, you know?
- ◇ That said, if you ship it, I probably also ship it. Don't be afraid to bring it up!
- ◇ It's not a ship without drama. :3c

Characters

- ◇ My characters are very likely not what you think they are, especially the canon ones on iinfinites. I like to think of canon as more of a guideline than any actual rules. If you think you know something about them... well. Think again. And, please. Don't assume?
- ◇ I'm not going to walk back or tone down my characters for the sake of a relationship or a plot, and I will certainly not do it with an OC for the sake of a canon character. To put it delicately: Get Fucked.
- ◇ I customize backstories to fit our plots & the verse we're in, and work on them as I go. So! If there's a verse you don't see, just ask! It may be that I just haven't needed it yet, or just haven't gotten around to typing it up.
- ◇ Natalie is my baby. My main OC. My longest running work of art. I have been roleplaying her for years - decades! - and I am not interested in making her softer, nicer, or less powerful for the sake of someone else's feelings. I know I said this up above, basically, but I want to be clear; I will not change her for anyone. Thank you for understanding!

nsfw

- ◇ I'm, like. Thirty. NSFW will be present, whether that's gore, violence, sensitive material, or smut.
- ◇ I'll tag all of it, of course - It's just gonna be here. Be aware.
- ◇ I don't even like interacting with minors, half the time. I'm sure as shit not gonna write smut with them, or about them.
- ◇ I'm pretty sure the read=more function is still a sack of hot garbage??? That breaks posts??? SO unless someone tells me otherwise, I'm not going to be using it, and especially not for nsfw threads. Sure, I use it on my ooc posts - nobody needs to see those unless they give a shit, && I will ramble for hours if given the chance - but not on my ic posts.

My Art

- ◇ I'll often reblog, post, or otherwise share my art on my rp blogs. If you only want all RP all the time, you may wish to just... not follow.
- ◇ Feel free to reblog if you'd like! In fact, please do. I love to be validated.
