

1. Portugal will set Spain as Natural Enemy. Spain will conquer Norte while maintaining Azores and Algarve. Spain will maintain these 3 regions as long as the agreement is valid, and the Portuguese Government will help fight for Spain in case a RW is opened in any of these, unless they have open MPP battle against them. They will not support, fund, or help, those who fight for the resistance.

2. Spain will not veto an attempt by Portugal to enter ACT.

3. If the Portuguese Government breaks this treaty by sponsoring, supplying, funding or co-operating with enemies of TWO to free these regions, Serbia will immediately propose the removal of all ties between Portugal and the TWO alliance; if Portugal is a member of ACT, Serbia will begin a process to expell them from the alliance, resulting in TWO HQ requiring all proTWO nations to drop their MPPs with Portugal.

4. If for whatever reason, a Portuguese Military Unit fights for the Resistance Force, they will be publicly denounced in an official article made by the Portuguese Government.

6. If Spain finds and conquers another Aluminium region its Government feels is secure, they will free Norte.

7. Serbia will act as judge of this agreement. Should any side break it, Serbia will begin the required discussions within TWO. TWO HQ will also provide a breakdown of who is at fault.
