

Delecta, Golden Dolphin, Fall Crown

Sing praise to this Baroness,
Delecta Diana d'Averno,
Leader of her people,
Tender of the List Field,
Joyful guide to knight and squire,
Gentle hand that guides the novice,
Cherished friend to Crown and people.
Golden light on Atlantia's shore.

As she records our tournament feats,
And chronicles the days of her folk,
And teaches those who would learn at her brew pot
She enriches our Kingdom and Kin.
Thus, we induct her into the Order of
The Golden Dolphin, and bid her bear
The honors of this august Company.
So say Ragnarr and Mary Isabel, King and Queen
At our Crown tournament in Marinus,
This 4th day of November, AS 58.

Chronicler, Baroness, Minister of the List, Teacher

These words describe the service Delecta Diana d'Averno has bestowed upon our sovereign lands. With a gentle hand and joyful heart she works hard to improve our realm. It is right and proper that we, Ragnarr & Mary Isabel, King and Queen recognize her service and induct her into the Order of the Golden Dolphin. Done at Our Crown Tournament, in the Barony of Marinus, this 4th day of November, AS 58
