

Need a presentation

Goal: To explore ways the Learning Commons and the librarians can support social studies instruction.

Materials:

- Menu of Services - show on the website
- Tutorials on the website (linked on menu) > Staff > Teacher Support > Tutorials
- Library website
 - Research zone
 - Pathfinders (World War II is a pretty good example)

Order of Activities:

1. Distribute Bingo cards (add questions/prompts below)
2. Introduce ourselves
 - a. Tech support
 - b. Research support
 - c. Teach a class - Library Media Studies
 - d. Reading materials for you and your students (yes, you can check things out)
3. Tour the Learning Commons
 - a. Makerspace - 3D printer, Cricut, low-tech, Lego, craft supplies, cardboard, upcycled materials + lockboxes for breakout EDUs
 - i. Laminator & color printing & bulletin board paper
 - b. Studio with green screen
 - c. Desktops and laptops - printing for students
 - d. TV areas for small groups
 - e. Access to iPads in the makerspace
4. Show the menu of services on the website and spend 10 minutes looking through it
5. Brainstorming: How could you utilize the librarians? - sticky notes??
 - a. Are there social studies units conducive to...
 - i. Research (databases, citations, etc.)?
 - ii. Information literacy?
 - iii. Literacy?
 - iv. Primary and secondary sources?
 - v. Search strategies?
 - b. Are there projects requiring additional materials or support?
 - c. Do you have an idea for a project but aren't quite sure what to do?
 - d. What materials would be helpful in the library? Are you curious about whether we have materials on X topic?
 - e. Maybe show some examples of pathfinders, projects, lessons, etc...
6. Resources everyone should know about!
 - a. Show Destiny Discover in their Wake ID portal
 - b. Databases
 - c. Nearpod

- d. PW resets
- e. Google extensions (like Screencastify, show how they can see if students can use it)
- f. Kyte Learning
- g. Wake Learns

Bingo Squares

1. Free space
2. A librarian mentions prizes
3. Unfamiliar acronym
4. Student brings a Chromebook for repair
5. The LC phone rings
6. Someone asks a question you were going to ask
7. A scanner beeps
8. A librarian has to step away to help someone
9. Someone yawns
10. More than one staff member comes in for support
11. "Literacy"
12. Someone mentions databases
13. You find something new on the website
14. Someone needs a charger
15. You get an idea
16. You learn something new
17. You check out a book
18. You know how to reset PWs
19. You know your Destiny ID
20. You found the manga mural
21. You saw someone reading
22. You know where the reference section is
23. You found a pencil stuck in the ceiling
24. You can find a book in Spanish
25. You took a selfie with a knight in the LC