

Hello Lamees

I fell in love with your (Middle Eastern Delights) book and the recipes are amazing, especially maamoul.

I noticed that you are trying to make this masterpiece sell more, but you don't have a landing page for this book and that will make people not see it, I will build you one designed to get you more traffic and more sales.

If you are interested reply and let me build you one.

Best, Martin

This is a small example of my work
