PROFILE

M. N. Anucheth is a 2009 batch Indian Police Service officer borne to the Karnataka cadre. He is currently working as DIGP, Recruitment.

He has a degree in B.E (Electronics) from RV College of Engineering and a Master's Degree in Police Management from Osmania University.

He has served in various capacities of the Police Department across Karnataka such as the Superintendent of Police of Kodagu and Chitradurga districts and as the Deputy Commissioner of Police of 3 divisions of Bengaluru city and as the Joint Commissioner of Police, Traffic, Bengaluru City.

He has been decorated with the following Awards / Medals:

1) Awarded the Chief Minister's Medal in 2017.
2) Awarded the Union Home Minister's Medal for Excellence in Investigation in 2019.
3) Awarded the Nadaprabhu Kempegowda Award in 2020.

Professional Interests:

He has a keen interest in criminal investigation. He has been an integral part of several Special Investigation Team (SIT) that were formed to detect and investigate sensational criminal cases.

He has domain expertise in investigation of new age crimes involving dark-net, social media and crypto-currencies.

He is a keen advocate of the use of the latest technologies in traffic policing.

Personal Interests:

He is an avid quizzer and dabbles in modern farming practices.