

A Call To Pray: Love Sudan

The Prayer Ministry at Central loves to try new things and expose you to new and fresh prayer opportunities. Your next chance to join in on something special will be on Thursday, August 21, when Central will host a night of prayer for the nation of Sudan. We are calling it "Love Sudan."

It is no secret that Sudan is divided by civil war, and Christians in Sudan are persecuted and murdered. They need our love and our prayers. For this event, we are teaming up with Central's Global Outreach Department, other churches, and interested organizations. One of those churches is a Sudanese church here in the Valley.

We will host the prayer gathering at the Chapel on Central's Mesa Campus (933 N. Lindsay Rd. Mesa, AZ 85213) from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m., Thursday, August 21. There will be worship (some of which we hope will be led by the Sudanese church), stations for prayer for Sudan, and corporate times of prayer.

Love Sudan will move to the Sudanese church on Friday, August 22, with prayer from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. and then on Saturday, August 23, it will move to Church of the Nations in Phoenix. This night of prayer will begin at noon and go into the evening for those who can participate.

For more information about Love Sudan at these churches go to Krista.winchester@gracetogo.org .

We are hoping you will plan to attend Thursday night at Central, at the least, and maybe some of the other gatherings too as we Love Sudan through our prayers.

Ultimately, this may become a model that we will use for other targeted nights of prayer.

Hoping to pray with you there - Paul Covert
