

Lesson 4: People of the 1838 Black Metropolis

Black Labor Organizations in 19th Century Philadelphia Mapping Activity

Name: _____

Group Reading: Notes Organizer

Names of Group Members:

Document Title:

Who created this document?

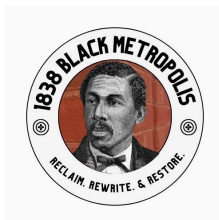

Name, role, or description of the author – if known

What is this document about?

Summarize the main message or purpose in two-three sentences

What does this source tell us about Black community leadership during the mid-19th Century?

Think: economic action, freedom seeking, education, mutual aid, etc.

Lesson 4: People of the 1838 Black Metropolis

Black Labor Organizations in 19th Century Philadelphia Mapping Activity

Partner Exchange

Notes from Partner's Reading	Synthesis
Name of Document 	What do these documents tell us about Black community leadership during this time?
Words or phrases that stood out to my partner's group: 	 How do these sources challenge common assumptions about what Black people could do, build, or lead during the time of slavery?
How does this source help us rethink who counts as a leader in Black history? 	 A question you have about this document:

