

My dream state

Haha, this is easy. I have thought about this countless times, where do I start?

I'm enraged, deep down I got a flame and I want to burst into the world with it to create it as I desire.

When I said enraged, I do not mean I'm not an emotional bitch, I'm just angry that I'm not rich to possess what I want of wealth to build what I want, I'm going to be a martial art champion and the strongest leader the world has seen surpassing Alexander the Great, Napoleon Bonaparte, Khalid Bin waleed.....

My 5 min almost expired but that is what I want POWER.
