

Reading Log Questions

* Answers must be written in complete sentences. Add detail if you can.

How many pages are in this book?

Name one character and give three personality traits.

What is the copyright of this story?

Has this author written any other novels?

Explain one thing that has happened so far in the story.

How does this book remind you of another novel that you've read?

Is there a character in the story that you would want to befriend? Who and why?

Would you recommend this book? Explain.

Predict something that is going to happen next in the novel.

What is the setting of this novel?

Write a sentence that has a capital letter that is used for a proper noun.

Find an unusual, interesting, new or unfamiliar word from today's reading.

Recount what happened in your reading today.

Write something that you are wondering about. (character, plot)

Do you like the plot so far? Give two reasons why or why not.

When does this story take place? Could it be present day? Explain.

Who is the author of your book?

Write the last sentence that you read from your novel today.

Find an example of an author's technique used. Explain.

What is a message that you think the author is conveying in your novel.

How many main characters are in the novel? What are their names?

Write a question you would ask the author.

Make a personal connection to the story.

In order tell three things that happened in today's reading.

Describe the problem or conflict that is happening in the story

What is your favourite part so far in the novel. Describe.

Who is the narrator of the story?

What genre is your book?

Are the characters made believable? If so, how? If not, why not?

Who would most enjoy this book? (boys, girls, what age, what interests?)

How is the main character different from you?

Would this story make a good movie or TV series? Explain why.

What does the title tell you about the book?