

Racial Equity Community Organization Directory

About These Opportunities:

In an effort to promote racial equity, we've compiled a list of community organizations addressing racial equity across the country. This is not all-encompassing or fully-comprehensive, but we will continue to add to it in the coming weeks and months. You can also check this website for more racial equity resources, including our document on Racial Equity Volunteer Opportunities. We encourage you to support and volunteer with organizations addressing racial equity.

About NetWork Volunteers:

We are a national nonprofit whose mission is to recruit, connect and manage a network of volunteers and community organizations by identifying impactful volunteer projects and creating turn-key volunteer experiences. Since opening our doors in 2014, we have worked with over 50,000 volunteers to support over 100 community organizations and projects in 20+ states and two US territories with a combined philanthropic impact of over $11 million.

Please contact us at 504-233-2995 or info@networknola.org if you know an opportunity that should be added to this list.

National Organizations (websites are hyperlinked in the name of the organization)

- COLOR OF CHANGE; We help people respond effectively to injustice in the world around us. As a national online force driven by 1.7 million members, we move decision-makers in corporations and government to create a more human and less hostile world for Black people in America. Contact
- NATIONAL BLACK JUSTICE COALITION; to end racism, homophobia, and LGBTQ/SGL bias and stigma. As America's leading national Black LGBTQ/SGL civil rights organization focused on federal public policy, NBJC has accepted the charge to lead Black families in strengthening the bonds and bridging the gaps between the movements for racial justice and LGBTQ/SGL equality. Contact
- INCITE! WOMEN OF COLOR AGAINST VIOLENCE; INCITE! is a network of radical feminists of color organizing to end state violence and violence in our homes and communities. Contact
- THE TRAYVON MARTIN FOUNDATION; We are a non profit organization whose main purpose is to provide both emotional and financial support to families who have lost a child to gun violence. Our goal is to shift the conversation from intervention to reform. Our programs are strengthening families through leadership, support, guidance, and counseling. The Foundation is supported by a network of individuals and companies who share a unified vision of a world free of senseless killings. Our core mission is to gain fellowship toward personal restoration and ultimately community building. Contact

- NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE; to secure the political, educational, social, and economic equality of rights in order to eliminate race-based discrimination and ensure the health and well-being of all persons. Contact
- TRANS WOMAN OF COLOR COLLECTIVE; To uplift the narratives, lived experiences and leadership of trans and gender non-conforming people of color, our families and comrades as we build towards collective liberation for all oppressed people. Contact
- BLACK LIVES MATTER; connect Black people from all over the world who have a shared desire for justice to act together in their communities. The impetus for that commitment was, and still is, the rampant and deliberate violence inflicted on us by the state. Contact
- BLACK WOMENS BLUEPRINT; We work to place Black women and girls' lives as well as their particular struggles squarely within the context of the larger racial justice concerns of Black communities and are committed to building movements where gender matters in broader social justice organizing so that all members of our communities gain social, political and economic equity. We engage in progressive research, historical documentation, policy advocacy and organizing steeped in the struggles of Black women within their diverse communities and within dominant culture. Contact - scroll to the bottom of the linked page
- BLACK ORGANIZING FOR LEADERSHIP AND DIGNITY; BOLD is a national training intermediary focused on strengthening Black social justice infrastructure in the U.S. We do this by transforming the practice of Black organizers to increase their alignment, impact and sustainability to win progressive change. Contact
- NATIONAL BLACK WOMEN'S JUSTICE INSTITUTE; works to reduce racial and gender disparities across the justice continuum affecting Black women, girls, and their families, by conducting research, providing technical assistance, engaging in public education, promoting civic engagement, and advocating for informed and effective policies. NBWJI works independently and in collaboration with a number of universities and organizations to improve outcomes for women and girls impacted by criminalization and economic marginalization. Contact - scroll to the bottom of the linked page
- AFRICAN AMERICAN LEADERSHIP FORUM; The African American Leadership Forum (AALF) seeks to uplift the Black community by identifying and empowering Black leaders. Contact - scroll to the bottom of the linked page
- AFRICAN AMERICAN ROUND TABLE; The African American Roundtable at CLGS (AART) seeks the full inclusion of black lesbian, gay, bisexual, queer and transgender people in communities of faith and the mobilization of black communities of faith in support of social justice for LGBTQ people by fostering dialogue about the intersections between faith, gender and sexuality among black church and faith leaders

(including scholars of religion), among black church congregations, among black LGBTQ persons and between each of these constituencies. Contact
