Hello, Let's tune in to the Grounding frequencies of 432 Hertz.
It helps reset the nervous system
Beautiful!
Beautiful
Okay.
Let's tap in, tune in
Let's see what comes up for us today, Pausing, to consider, To reflect.

Okay, this card keeps coming out, but I think that is the point of it Because it's Persistence.

Okay, Yes, maintaining your persistence, And we've got Independence.

It's beautiful.

Being independent. Let move this over Here. look at this it is a little Douglas fir Cones, Okay guys.

Okay, Let's see what comes out from the Arcturians
My sponge is almost not wet
Okay, one second.

Okay, It's definitely wet now.

Okay, let's see, let's see.

Okay, okay.
Arcturians. What do you have for us?
Persistence and independence

Yes, Divine blueprint.

That's your Your soul plan, your soul mission soul purpose

That's why you were meant to be here.

Beautiful.

Recognize yourself as the star that you are Okay, recognition.

That's not it.

The energy of recognition helps you look at yourself differently.

We often have a lot of self-criticisms that influence our self-esteem in a negative way.

Fear is frequently the barrier that keeps us from doing what we really want to do.

Recognize yourself As the beautiful star that you are beautiful Independence.
Yes

This is that solo journey of becoming
This Is that sovereignty of self
See myself, Right, healed of codependencies

Healed of Codependencies.

We've got Isa

So, this is Stillness, A pausing
Stillness, self-control, Focus, stability, and stasis.

Okay, Inward facing quiet Stillness can lower you to sleep and in the bitter cold sleep can bring death.

The message of isa is one finding the inner strength, self-reliance, self-awareness, and self-acceptance.

It holds activity until a change is made, whether from the within or without.

Yes, Aligned with your recognition And persistence, right?

Persistence on your independent growth and evolution.

What do we got?

Let's just Have things fall out Onto the table.

If they want to be a part of reading, Yes.

Do a couple more shuffies I need a proper one
There we go
Okay.

Okay, So stillness too connect, Right?

This is part of the independence is the lack of other people's influence and projections and expectations.

So, we are alone with our own thoughts.

Our own Desires, wants, needs, Issues, right?

All of the things and this centered, connectedness, development, Connection with your higher self And Spirit team Who consist of ancestors, arc angels, ascended Masters, all of the good ones
Ok this one really wanted to come out i kept seeing it
Seven of Pentacles

There's just stillness.

There's your centeredness.

There is your connectedness, right?

Grounded, In touch with your intuition, Grounded in Quiet.
Peaceful
Listening mode!

Beautiful And judgment flipped.

Okay, this is, Um, Phoenix From the flame Era, Your rise, your release Phase of death and rebirth, death of the old way, rebirth into the new.

This is acclimation.

This is Independence.

Okay, beautiful tending to self tending to your own, tending to your physical home, right?

Your food, yourself care.

All of these things. That is the tending of your garden, right?

The place that nourishes you that you nourish in Return. Your home Affairs, right?

Your work, this is career, too.

This is your business.

View the independence part and all that goes with it right.

Tending to home, tending to yourself And tending to connection.

This is how you become an overflowing cup.

Yes, your dedication to yourself to all of those areas, Just like, Um, strengthening a muscle.

We get better and better at it.

The more we persist, right?

The more we focus and listen.

This is why you need the quiet mind and the clear connection and the peaceful Stillness To receive the inner guidance.

Whether it's from your intuition Or your spirit team, right?

This is how you develop your Methods of receiving.
For me, I receive a lot of signs and synchronicities.

I have a strong pattern recognition gift And so Signs -

I notice the little signs right and how signs can confirm each other, inter webly, interwebbedly, But some people you know, they hear direct communication, your thoughts, and people see.

Some people feel some people have a combination of all of those things,
right?

But this is the empress way
The holding of the frequency.

This is that Stillness, right?

That Stillness, connection

There's the web that I was seeing, that web in the background, right?

This is your energetic, Um, signature.

Your sphere of resonance, And this quiet, Peaceful, Receiving, and birthing right, You can clearly visualize and picture The things that you want.

The things that you See for yourself, for your loved ones, for your life.

Okay, Beautiful.

Being in your authenticity. Standing firm for what you believe, holding the vision, being prismatic, being able to communicate with others, Being firmly, in your standing, so it doesn't matter what somebody else is saying, doing, projecting upon you, Um, trying to poke and pick and create a reaction.

To

I don't know why, everybody has their motivation, right?

Um, but this recognition that that has nothing to do with you, right when you are Sovereign, when you are truly independent, When you are persistent with your recognition of self as the empress right as one Authentically shining, And independent, then you are unfuckwithable, right, Someone else's baiting

Um, you're not hungry for anybody else's bait, And so it doesn't work.

You value Your own peace, More than Someone else's opinion, right?

Yes, and this also leaves room for those who see you, who get it.

Who can reciprocate in, like, right, Like-Minded, Inner child, playful exploratory, Sharing is caring, abundance, reciprocation

This is also a Um, Reconciliation,
Recognition of Soul, of Souls.

Your soul feels like, home, right?

This is why we are still.

This is why we are connected.

This is why we are feeling With our eyes closed because we can't trust what we see, because that's just one dimension.

And we are multi-dimensional, And so people Are going to feel like love.

Okay, this card just keeps coming up.

And what a beautiful follow-up to this, this is this.

This is the reiteration.

This is what you were drawing into yourself.

Beautiful, loving, reciprocating relationships, Also authentic, also standing in their sovereignty.

Who value what you bring, And don't take it for granted, right?

Beautiful!

Wow, It is your destiny.

To speak your truth and to be seen In your authenticity.

Never underestimate the power Of your purpose

This, recognize Who you are, And the resonance That you contribute to the whole, His purposeful.

This is why you're here, right?

That Divine blueprint at the beginning.

This is your soul purpose To be here.

Now holding the love frequency Shining in your authenticity, right, and independence, persistently choosing love and joy, An authentic exchange, And engage- engagement.

Beautiful, beautiful, beautiful!

Beautiful Yes, okay, Gorgeous.

Oh.

oh.

Okay, So we've got this heart wound.

This is like past wounds, And it flipped following a message from the heart and worth celebrating okay, and it fell on the two of cups.

This is about union.

This is about partnership.

This is about two overflowing cups coming together and greeting a tsunami of Love.

This is, this is

Okay, this is worth celebrating, so this is, this Could be communication, an offer an opportunity that leads you right.

This could be a job opportunity that puts you into my location that you not only aren't at any meet somebody, Um, or running to somebody from the past, right?

Um, but whatever this is, this could be an idea that comes in that you build as you create that, you put out there that people respond to gorgeously.

That leads you to your life-minded Others that eventually you arrive at your person.

Okay, but it's going to be celebratory. And gorgeous.

Yes,
We love celebratory and gorgeous!

Oh yeah, and it was attached for, um, the hearts, so this could be someone from your past coming in with a apology, wanting to reconcile, right?

Because we did have the reconciliation, So this could be a message from the past.

This could be a Um, new way of considering something happened, a hurt or a wound that happened in the past that you are now able to heal because you hold an understanding, right?

When you go through this process of healing in your independence in your Um Recognition of self, You inadvertently Develop an understanding for others, right?

A recognition that we are all learning and evolving and growing and stripping away and dealing with and trying to get back to this right.

Being a star, and so There's an understanding.

It's like, you know, when you find out that, Like, say you were bullied, right?

And then you find out later on in life.

That, You know, 100 of bullies, are bullied themselves at home, right?

And That changes things.

It doesn't take away the hurt, the pain, the trauma of being bullied By that person.

But there's a development of compassion and understanding, Um, And maybe even Well, that compassion, right?

Maybe a little bit of - it's softens it.

It lessens it.

It makes it, Um, Easier to release, right?

ok

Let's get one more.

Should we just do a rando split?

Let's do a rando split. The work.

Yes, okay, The work that you have done to become one who stands firmly in their knowing, in their authenticity, in their love frequency, in their independence, persistently excavating to become the diamond to become the star to shine bright.

And Okay, that's the work.

Anytime, we're talking about doing the work.

That's the work we're talking about.

The healing, the shadow work, right?

It starts with recognition.

It starts with recognizing, I do this thing every time this happens.

Why do I do that?

I don't want to do that, you know, it hurts people.

When I do that, okay, well, where is this coming from?

How can I change?

Um, All of these ways of doing the work.

Okay, Let's get a archetype.

I gotta do it one more.

Okay, We just want one

Please and thank you

That's more than one. I did see the heart, though, And that is your inner Compass, right?

Your heart space is why we work, the work on your nervous system, right?

Because when your nervous system is out of whack, then you can't trust it unreliable.

Because it is in fight or flight mode, it is always assuming the worst case scenario. To keep itself safe, right?

But when you are, Um, Healed To a certain degree, Then your nervous system responds To external circumstances, Um, More efficiently, right, and so you can trust it when something is like, I don't know about that, then thats a no or something is like, although you know Anxiety and excitement feel similar.

And it's another aspect of the work and the retraining of your nervous system is, in a Stillness, right ,is to be able to determine, to be able to tell which is, which is this fear or this excitement?

And there's a little bit of both in Anything when you're moving into the unknown, right?

Because it's an unknown, there's a little bit of like, it's excited fear,
right?

And not debilitating.

This is an indicator of, like, I don't know.

But, yes, let's try it out, right?

I'm a little bit fearful, but it's okay, because you know, I have faith in myself. I recognize myself as capable as, Um, confident as competent,
right?

Okay,

The Empty room.

I want to say unlimited possibilities, lets see what the book says

It is a 42 By my Calculations.

Okay, 30, 42.

The vortex, the abyss, the nothing, the unknown.

The empty room haunts us all.

It is the universal and all too frequent feeling of lack of wanting of the craving to fill ourselves with something anything.

Oh, we are the empty room

We too often attempt to remedy the discomfort of the empty room by any means necessary, leading us to a culture of more.

Ironically, the empty room is filled to the brim with potential, yet we perceive it as not enough.

This card is a cry for patience, for sitting within the bearing barren walls of not knowing, For awaiting true Vision And purpose before attaching to what we should do next to save our outward appearance.

Be with the nothingness, Be with the impatience.

The empty room has immense power.

Let others wonder what you are doing if you can settle into the magic of emptiness.

You will soon hear its Whispers of wisdom.

Beautiful Stillness, right?

This Frequency of holding, Of receptivity.

Beautiful

when in light, spaciousness, potential, and possibilities when in dark addiction instability and more, More For more's sake.

There we go,

The archetype of the empty room is also portrayed as a hungry ghost, always feeding and never satisfied.

Beautiful!

Wow, potent, potent.

Okay, let's get a power deck

I want to get one from the power deck
That one?

The world is bereft of feminine Consciousness.

That's funny.

I was gonna say there's so much feminine energy on the table.

Um, but that's the beingness, right?

The beingness of the empress and Stillness of Isa

To bring Mother Earth back into balance.

We must bring back our awareness of her language is a barrier between us, but women has, but woman, has always communed with women in an unspoken language.

Her roots are entwined with the essence of Mother Earth, or she too is feminine.

Woman is the keeper of the planet and must not let her energy be rerouted by the male systems within women or men.

We are all in need of world harmony.

Mother Earth has been misunderstood, but she is the universe.

She is the womb for all that lives.

Feminine Consciousness is the energy that embodies the wisdom you need at this moment.

Beautiful. Wombness, right?

Beautiful!

Gorgeous, Gorgeous - a number 13!

The painting is entitled in the Garden of Eve.

It is in the direction of the West through the transformation of an over balance of male energies That we will reinstate the harmony and balance on Earth with feminine Consciousness in perfect balance on Earth and in perfect balance with male Consciousness.

The painting represents the feminine spirit as exemplified by the trees of women, trees in a Grove of Sisterhood, of women in communication.

This Grove of female trees shows its connectedness and Harmony with the universal Consciousness within the Earth below.

The Butterflies represent the chakra system of energy throughout the human being, which relates to Universal energies that are born from Sacred Space and provide a growing evolution towards the light.

Gorgeous!

Beautiful!

Well,

It just seems right That we get a wild woman card.

Okay, so the feminine, Um, energy is the beingness, right, The intuitive, the knowing, The receiving, The birthing, The Creator, And the Destroyer

Oh wow, We've got allowing, Beautiful.

Be the source of possibility for yourself.

You can afford opportunity. to allow means to give your blessings-

Give your blessing of consent to move away from the plan.

Consider the plan, so to speak, is to allow not necessarily doing what you had in mind. Permit the present - The presence of yourself say to self, "I am allowed here. I'm going to plan for my presence to be part of my experience and accept what unfolds before me."

You are allowed to be here in your own way without judgment from anyone, including yourself.

This is what is meant by sitting outside the box. allowing is outside of our predetermined ways.

It only - it's only from accepting What is that you get to move from one place to another

Allowing is moment by moment living.

It is living in the unknown and is not part of the plan.

Allowing is not a predetermined motivation or incentive.

It is letting be what it is in each moment undetermined by your mind.

Give yourself permission to consider that your path has as much right to be here as anyone else's. Per means For each and Mission means assignment.

Consider for a moment that to give yourself permission is really to accept each assignment your life presents. to Grant permission for each task, and to allow for the presentations unfolding in every moment.

Don't Claim your place in this world is to let all of yourself be here and to permit the passage of all that is presented to you To allow this moment to enter into your life, allows you all of you to be here in the moment.

Embrace yourself here.

Take it all in.

Possibility Is your chance to break open into opportunity, unfolding, in every moment.

But remember, this is a step-by-step process. Experience each moment, one small step at a time.

Staying in the moment is the key to allowing and observing yourself as you go along.

You deserve to be here.

All your feelings are yours, and they are part of your journey.

Don't be afraid.

You are allowed to be present in everything you do, no matter what. Grant yourself permission to allow your feelings.

breathe.

Feel the feeling, Name the feeling, and permit yourself to be in the experience you need.

It is not hard to allow. the hardest thing is to not be yourself.

You just have to give yourself permission and practice it a little.

You are a good person.

Know this.

It really is important and natural and inherent part of the wonderful Wild and authentic path.

Beautiful, Beautiful, beautiful confirmation

Lets get those ones

Love messages starting forest time because you can't have too much of that we really can.

There's Life giving Mana In the forest.

Okay, it's all around. oxygen, Um, negative ions.

All the things our bodies need to repair, to restore, to connect, to find Stillness,
Release the resistance

You are Divine blessed.

Yeah, as you see, as you will see, as you are seeing, Right, as you Allow and be In receiving mode, Birthing without attachment, without expectation, Those seeds bloom and come back to you.

This is the beautiful resonance of the empress, birthing seeds and blooms, returning right.
