Become a Donor

Thank you for your interest in supporting Prism Academy.

Your contribution makes holistic healing and education accessible to those who might otherwise go without, while fostering a conscious, connected community. By becoming a donor, you invest in collective well-being by helping us deliver evidence-based emotional wellness education, create safe spaces for healing and growth, and provide leadership opportunities that empower individuals.

In alignment with our values of reciprocity, participants who receive scholarships commit to completing a small community service project, ensuring your generosity ripples outward into the wider community.

Please review our sponsorship opportunities and complete the linked form to begin your partnership—together, we can transform lives.

Ways to support:

1. Sponsor a Participant

The most impactful way to support The Prism Academy's mission.

Sponsoring a participant is a powerful way to make transformational healing and leadership development accessible to someone who may not otherwise have the means to participate.

Participants in our 3-month cohort experience engage in a transformative journey grounded in evidence-backed curriculum.. This experience supports deep emotional wellness, personal growth, and empowered leadership.

Upon completion of Foundations, participants are encouraged to continue on to our Explorations course collection where they are encouraged to take various healing and educational courses. Prism's Masters programs allow participants to fully develop a new skillset through which they can give back to their communities—offering their own accumulated wisdom as mentors, facilitators, or leaders in service.

In alignment with our core value of reciprocity, all participants who receive sponsorship commit to completing a small community service project. This act of giving back strengthens the ripple effect of healing, connection, and collective growth. This model breaks down the notion that reciprocity must be through financial or direct means. Participating in our Sponsorship program not only changes individual lives, but sends a healing ripple out into the world.
