

Terms of service

Dms on these platforms are open; Twitter

By commissioning me, you are agreeing to these terms and conditions:

General

- ★ I have the right to reject a commission.
- ★ By default, the product will not have a watermark/signature. I will ask clients if they want their artwork to be signed.
- ★ My skill is limited:
 - ❖ I can draw: Humans, Ponies, Fanart, Ocs, light gore (blood)
 - ❖ I can't draw: Furrries (except ponies), Mecha, NSFW, heavy gore, hate art, tattoos

The process

Revisions are accepted and open for feedback during the sketch phase of the artwork. Finish products are sent through gdrive links.

Payment

I will be accepting through Paypal and in full payment before starting the art commission. For locals, we will be using Gcash. I will be sending an invoice and will be waiting for the payment for 10 days. If the customer is unable to pay within the time given, then I will have to cancel the commission.

Refunds

Strictly no cancellations. Refunds can only be requested if I haven't started the commission days after the full payment. There will be refunds when art is not expected to finish. No refunds once the art is finished.

Usage Policy

The artworks are only for personal uses. I kindly ask you to credit me (@Rukoji122) when posting the artwork online on any platform.

I will usually post the commission online, so please inform me if you request to keep your commission private :). I own all rights to the work. Feeding the artwork to any form of generative AI is prohibited.

Deadlines

Rushed orders with specific deadlines will have +50% added to the total price.. My artwork – starting at the day I sketch may take a long time and I would love to be given three (3) months in maximum for waiting since I am a full time student. The waitlist is on my carrd..

Please send references and clear ideas of what you'd love to be drawn.

Prices can change based on how complex the characters are.

Prices:

In USD and PHP (philippine peso)

I can receive from any currencies that are only available in Paypal. Currencies outside local (PHP) are going to be based on USD. These are base prices.
