

(Forgive me for some mistake grammars and short doc :')))

Hey ya! I'm Foxgamin21 - the artist, animator and roblox gamer.

So today is the last day of 2024 and I want to say Happy New Year!

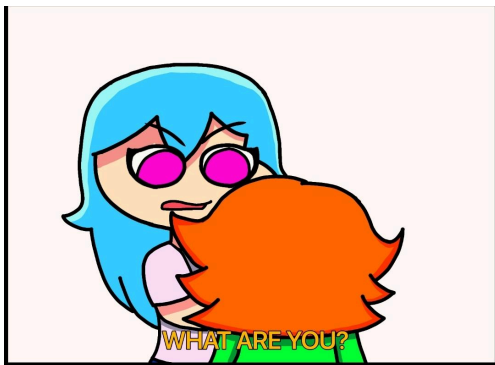

Since the first day I joined Twitter, joined the FNF community, I met new mutuals here, learned how to draw and enjoy the community. I'm thanks so much that they learned my drawing skill and met some good friends.

Here is my timeline from the gmod splatoon creator to become an artist:

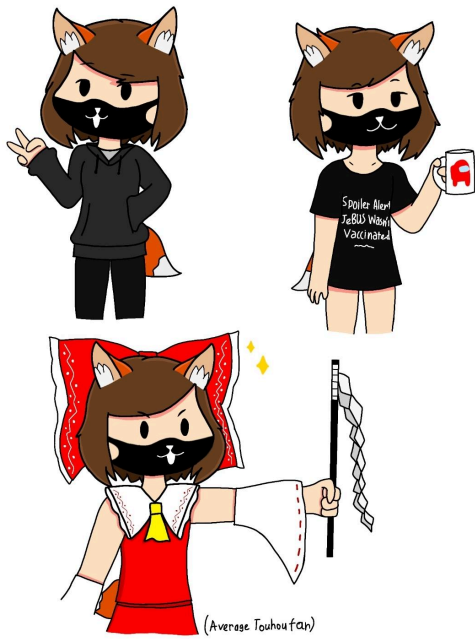

I started posting my gmod splatoon arts from 2020 - 2021, this is the time i found Twitter cuz it's the place i can find new people had same hobbies like me.

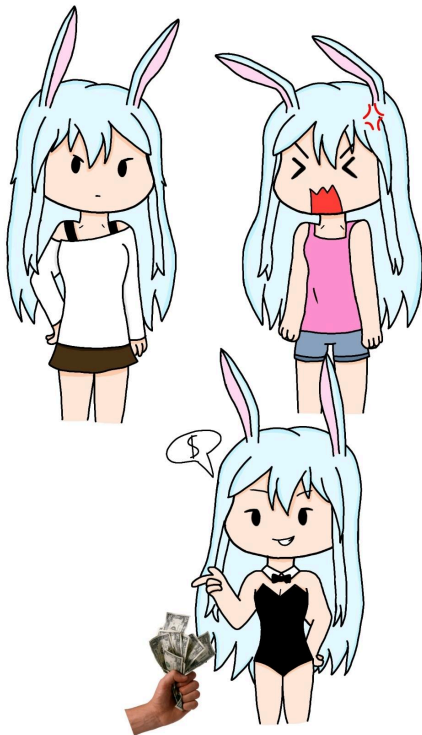

From 2021 - 2022, I drew some fnf fanarts. Most of them are just memes / shitposts

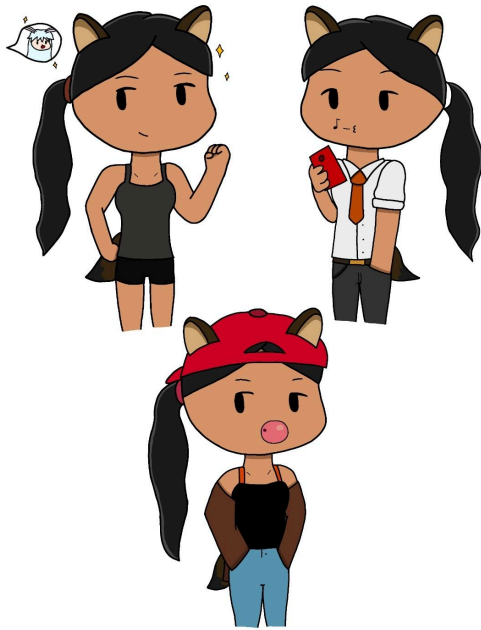

And from that time, i created my first OCs:

Here is Kochi - my first OC and yep, he based from my roblox avatar. At the first time, i called him "Fox", just like fnf devs called their characters are "Boyfriend", "Girlfriend",...

This is Hika - my second OC based from the Skyverse OCs (not really :P). At that time, i used her at an Skyverse OC, but then it was removed. And yea, i called her "Bunny" at the first time.

This is Tsubasa - my third OC. At that time, I was thinking about “Lesbian” girlfriend for Hika and also an tomboy OC. I called her “Raccoon” at that time.

I had created an fnf mod for my OCs at that time - VS Animal Girls (what the sigma???).
The mod still exist and you can play my mod here:

From 2022, I left splatoon community and had time for fnf community. Also i came back to college irl. At the freetime time, i made an update for VS. Animal girls, changed the mod to Weekend Excitin'.

My OCs are redesigned at that time and i debuted my fourth OC - Ren, who i called "Wolf"

I had great time for making and helping fnf mod from my mutuals. I also run lots of parody / gimmick accounts on Twitter like @/FNFOutContext (had give to other) (at the time the musk guy didnt bought twitter). Also, Pibby was in trend and I had made any Pibby hater jokes to the fans (pls forgive it, my friends 🥹🙏)

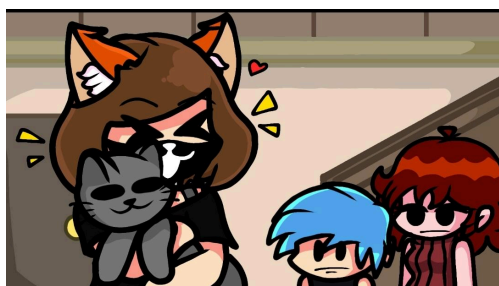

At the last months of 2022, i redesigned their eyes and gave their names.

About Weekend Excitin', the v1.0 mod is still exist, you can play it:

From 2023, i still update Weekend Excitin' and debuted Kochi and Ren pet - Cat.

At that time, I had time for the last years of college but still not busy at much.

Weekend Excitin' v2.0 was released at that time and it was the first time, my mod was in "Best of the day" and "Best of Yesterday" on Gamebanana.

It was the time i felt everyone likes my OCs :))

The v2.0 still exist, you can play it here:

From 2024, I had time for college and job, i didn't have much time for making mod, i just only helped my mutuals for spritesheets.

But also, I redesigned my OCs less fnf/phantomarcade style.

Start from 01/01/2025, I had plan for job for now. I still update for my mod as i can.

Here is the plan i will do for Weekend Excitin:

- Yep, update the fnf mod, i know!
- I have plan for webcomic for my OCs. Idk but i want to make one :P
- New OCs as new rival band of Weekend Excitin' (not for fnf mod this time)
- A new official Weekend Excitin' universe (which is different the fnf one)
- A bit change about Kochi and Ren relationship (and yep, they are couple, maybe)

Also, on my main Twitter account, i won't post arts from it anymore and my account will set at private. You can still mention me for fanart of my ocs or something.

I moved to Bluesky, Instagram, Cara and Newgrounds for posting arts and fnf mod updates.

The alt accounts are still unprivate if i had works.

Thx so much and Happy New Year!!! 🎆

NEW YEAR, NEW BEGINNING...
