

Global Disability Studies Writing Retreat

Plan for Writing Retreat 2022

Dear Transnational Disability Studies writers/scholars/activists/lovers,

A year ago, many of us met during our first all-day writing retreat on Zoom, and more than 20 of us joined from multiple time zones and worked on our projects related to disabilities alongside each other throughout the day.

We would love to see you again this year on Zoom, welcome newcomers, and give each other company. Please consider registering if you have a chance and if you have any task that you have put off for a while. There is no expectation that you would participate in all sessions or socialize. Stop by even for a short time, as your schedule allows. In the beginning and the end of each session, we will have short check-ins.

Date: November 30th 2022, 10am - 4:30pm (US Eastern Standard Time, UTC-5)

10:00--11:50 Writing session I

11:50--12:00 Conversation about crip writing strategies

12:00--2:00 Break

2:00--4:00 Writing session II

4:00--4:30 Happy Hour

Please feel free to invite others who you think would benefit from joining this space. If you have any questions, please email me (ekim37@gmail.com).

The retreat is hosted by the Global Disability Studies Working Group (at Syracuse University and Cornell University) at the Central New York Humanities Corridor.

Best wishes,

Eunjung Kim (with Andrew Campana, Julia Chang and Kathleen Perry Long)
