Katie is honored to serve as the Chief Impact Officer of the YMCA and has dedicated her entire professional career to the nonprofit sector. Katie is a huge sports fan, a die hard Ohio State Buckeye and can never turn down a good book! After growing up in Northwest Ohio town of 2,000 people, Katie spent nine years in Columbus, Ohio, before relocating to the Chicagoland area in the fall of 2006. Her biggest joy is her role as "Aunt Katie" to so many wonderful young people and cheering them on at their sporting events. Katie is grateful to be able to spend time traveling with her parents and for her circle of friends, who have become family, in her Chicago suburb of Flossmoor.
