Bookshop of the Year Award

This award is open to individual physical bookshops in Australia that demonstrated excellence over the course of the 2019 calendar year. The bookshop may be part of a larger chain, but this award is for an individual store as listed on the entry form.

The Bookshop of the Year Award is free to enter.

Terms and Conditions:

1. Details of each award, including criteria and information about how to enter, are set out on the individual award nomination pages.
2. This award category is free to enter. The entry must be completed and submitted by the closing date to be considered for the award.

Note: The winner will be selected by a panel of experts, including respected individuals with expertise in similar or related industries, though not necessarily in publishing or book retailing. Any conflicts of interest will be avoided. Please do not include commercially sensitive information in your submission. Any questions email abia@publishers.asn.au
