

NES Library Media Information

Mission: To achieve the goals of producing self-reliant 21st Century learners. The School Library Media Center will endeavor to connect, educate, and nurture the school community to promote student achievement through collaborative teaching in support of the curriculum, information literacy skills, and recreational reading to produce self-motivated students with the skills to be responsible citizens and lifelong learners.

What do students do in the Library Media Center?

Students come to library media once during the school week for special. They are introduced to various types of reading materials and encouraged to select books that are appropriate for their reading level. Students meet with Mrs. Brown for classes on developing research, technology and information literacy skills.

Policies
