Hey

First before I tell you why I'm emailing you guys right now I just want to say how much I love your shoe designs and the variety you guys have is amazing man. Not one bad shoe and so many different types of shoes for different occasions is awesome.

Now the reason I'm contacting you right now is because of an idea I have that will help you increase your sales and grow your company.

The idea of this project would be to introduce an email sequence or reformat your current one in such a way that it would help boost your sales and increase customer loyalty. It would also increase the lifetime value of each customer in your business and enhance customer engagement.

My sequence does all of this because the format and structure is in such a way that a relationship is created between you and your customer. The relationship between you and your customer is very important and ideal for your business to grow.

If you're interested in seeing what idea I had in mind let me know and I will be more than happy to produce a free DIC or PSA email for you.
