Reading Activities: Color in squares as you complete the activities.

Say nursery rhymes in a sing/song-like way. Add motions and/or your favorite dance moves to have a dance party!	Draw a picture of what you want to be when you grow up. Write the name of the job with the letters/sounds that you hear.	Find your favorite spot in your house or yard. Have a family member read with you in that spot.
Build a reading fort using a blanket, a chair and a table and read your favorite books in the fort.	Choose 5 letters and make two letter cards for each. Play a game of Concentration with a family member.	Write or draw your teacher a letter.
Cut apart the nursery rhyme cards. Pull a rhyme out each day, say it with your child and have him/her act it out and repeat it with you several times. Review the ones you've practiced each day.	Would you rather eat pizza or macaroni and cheese? Why? Draw a picture of you eating pizza or macaroni and cheese. When you are finished tell somebody why and have them write it on the paper for you. You can write some of the sounds by yourself.	Draw a picture of your favorite animal. Can you write the letters/sounds that you hear?

The Wheels on the Bus

The wheels on the bus go round and round
Round and round, round and round
The wheels on the bus go round and round
All through the town.

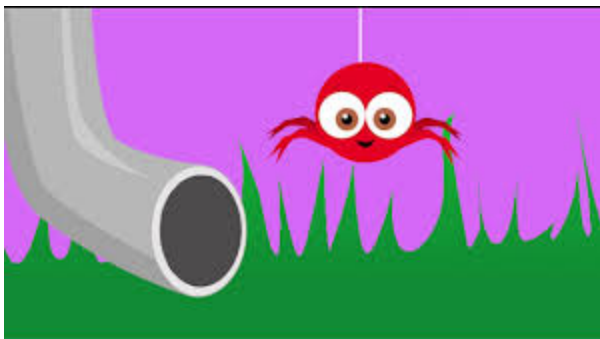

Five Little Monkeys

Five little monkeys jumping on the bed,
One fell down and bumped his head,
Mama called the doctor and the doctor said,
No more monkeys jumping on the bed!

Itsy Bitsy Spider

"The itsy bitsy spider crawled up the water spout.
Down came the rain, and washed the spider out.
Out came the sun, and dried up all the rain,
and the itsy bitsy spider went up the spout
again."

I'm a Little Teapot

I'm a little teapot, short and stout
Here's my handle
Here's my spout
When I get all steamed up, hear me shout
Just tip me over and pour me out.
