

Do I put my name in the New Commissioner thread?

You CAN enter in the thread if you:

- Have never commissioned art from me before in any way
- Have only ever received art from me through my Themed Calendar or Flat Color Friday slots and never through my regular openings
- Have only ever had your character(s) in art where you were not the sole commissioner*

*Sole commissioner = who I communicate directly with, who acquired the slot under their FA username or Twitter handle
