PRIVACY POLICY

Last Update: August 2026

CardScan ("CardScan", "Us", "We", "Our") is committed to respecting and protecting Your privacy. This Privacy Policy applies to the CardScan mobile application ("App").

By using the App, You agree to this Privacy Policy. If You do not agree, You must not use the App.

1. INFORMATION WE COLLECT

1.1. Information You Provide Directly

- Account information: When You sign in with Apple, We receive Your Apple ID and, if You choose, Your name and email address.
- Collection data: Cards You scan, save, and organize, including card names, condition grades, market values, and folder names.

1.2. Information Collected Automatically

- Scan count: We track the number of card scans to manage subscription limits.
- Usage data: Basic app usage for functionality purposes.

1.3. Card Photos

Photos taken within CardScan are sent to OpenAI's API solely for card identification purposes. These photos are processed and not permanently stored on Our servers.

2. HOW WE USE YOUR INFORMATION

We use collected information to:

- Provide and maintain the App and its features;
 - Manage Your card collection and portfolio;
 - Process subscription payments;
 - Improve the App's performance and accuracy;
 - Fulfill legal obligations under applicable law.
