Nor do we collect any information about criminal convictions and offences.

Moreover, we cannot access or use your credit card or debit card information.

When the App includes in-app purchases our e-commerce provider (Google) is responsible for billing, processing and charging for the in-app purchases, handles your personal information and keeps it absolutely safe and secure. You may access the applicable “in-app” purchase rules and policies directly from Google Play store.

II. HOW IS YOUR PERSONAL DATA COLLECTED

We obtain the categories of personal information listed above from the following categories of sources:

2.1. Directly from you:

Guided by the principle of data minimization we designed our Apps in a way that doesn't require you to sign up for an account in order to use the App. It means that you do not need to provide us with any information that can be used to access the App (like full name, username, public username used on social media accounts, phone number(s), e-mail address or other similar information), however, when you decide to contact us using the e-mail or support form (for example to inquire about the App or to request a support regarding the App usage) we may collect and use whatever contact information (name, e-mail address, and any information that you provide, including the contents of the messages or attachments) you send us via email or contact form when it is necessary for adequate performance of the contract between you and us. We use such information to respond effectively to your inquiry, fulfil your requests, and send you communications that you request.

2.2. Indirectly from you (Information collected by automated means):

When you use the App, some information about your mobile device and your user behaviour may be processed automatically. This information is generally non-personal, i.e. it does not, on its own, permit direct association with any specific individual, and we may access it only in aggregated form. We process this information on the ground of our legitimate interest in improving our App and giving our Users the best experience. If we do not access such data, we may not be able to provide you with all the features of the App.

We use third-party automatic data processing technologies to analyse certain information sent by your device via our Apps (advertising or analytics tools). Some of them launch automated processing of your personal data, including profiling, which means any form of automated processing of personal data used to evaluate certain personal aspects relating to you, in particular to analyse or predict aspects concerning your personal preferences, interests, behaviour, location or movements (see the list of data described below). Processing information through automatic data processing technologies starts automatically when you launch the App.

The following are the types of information we collect indirectly from you:

- Device Information. When you use a mobile device to access the App, some details about your device are reported, including “device identifiers”. Device identifiers are small data files or similar data structures stored on or associated with your mobile device, which uniquely identify your mobile device (but not your personality). Device identifier enables generalised reporting or personalised content and ads by our partners, service providers, and/or other third parties.

The following data can be processed:

- Information about the device itself: type of your mobile device, type of operating system and its version, model and manufacturer, screen size, screen density, orientation, battery, device memory usage.
- Information about the internet connection: mobile carrier, network provider, network type, Internet Protocol (“IP”) address, timestamp and duration of sessions, speed, browser.
- Location-related information: IP-address, the country code/region/state, city associated with your SIM card or your device, (Designated Market Area (DMA) in US), language settings, time zone.
- Device identifiers: Advertising ID or Android ID.

· Information about the App. Its name, API key (identifier for the App), version, properties of our App can be reported for automated processing and analysis.

· Cookies and similar technologies. When you use the App, cookies and similar technologies may be used (pixels, web beacons, scripts). A cookie is a text file containing small amounts of information which is downloaded to your device when you access the App. The text file is then sent back to the server each time you use the App. This enables us to operate the App more effectively. For example, we will know how many users access specific areas or features within our App and which links or ads they clicked on. We use this aggregated information to understand and optimise how our App is used, improve our marketing efforts, and provide content and features that are of interest to you. We may ask advertisers or other partners to serve ads or services to the App, which may use cookies or similar technologies.

· Log file information. Log file information is automatically reported each time you make a request to access the App. It can also be provided when the App is installed on your device. When you use our App, analytics tools automatically record certain log file information, including time and date when you start and stop using the App, and how you interact with the App.

· Ad-related information. The following data might be reported about the ads you can view: the date and time a particular ad is served; a record if that ad was “clicked” or if it was shown as a “conversation” event; what ad offer is about; what type of ad it is (e.g., text, image, or video); which ad placement is involved (where the ad offer is displayed within the App); whether you respond to the ad.

· In-app events. When you use our App, analytics tools automatically record in-app information (tutorial steps, payments, in-app purchases, custom events).

Information provided automatically to advertising or analytics tools does not generally come to our control, therefore we cannot be responsible for processing such information. Please mind that some services are engaged in personal data profiling and may obtain information related to your personality and/or your device by using technologies that do not belong to our scope of responsibility. We do not control, supervise or stand surety for how the third parties process your personal data, that might be collected by their own means (not through our App). Any information request regarding the disclosure of your personal information should be directed to such third parties (see Section IV).

III. THE PURPOSES OF PROCESSING YOUR PERSONAL DATA

Our mission is to constantly improve our App and provide you with new experiences. As part of this mission, we use your information for the following purposes:

- (a) To provide the App, maintain, improve, test and monitor the effectiveness of our App. We use information you provide to us directly and information that is processed automatically to provide and deliver the App to you as well as to better understand User behaviour and trends, detect potential outages and technical issues, to support the existing functions of the App and to add new features and services to the App.
- (b) To provide you with interest-based (behavioural) advertising or other targeted content. We may use information that is processed automatically for marketing purposes (to show ads that may be of interest to you based on your preferences). We provide personalised content and information to you, which can include online ads or other forms of marketing.
- (c) To communicate with you. We may use information that is processed automatically to send you push notifications with technical notices, updates, security alerts, and support and administrative messages. Similarly, we use your contact information to respond to you when you doodlegames2@gmail.com.
- (d) To prevent fraud and spam, to enforce the law. We are really aimed at our App to be free of spam and fraudulent content so that you feel safe and free. We may use your information to prevent, detect, and investigate fraud, security breaches, potentially prohibited or illegal activities, protect our trademarks and enforce our Terms of Use.

Please note that while integrating external tools and services we choose legal entities that can assure they apply all necessary technical and organisational measures to protect personal data. However, we cannot guarantee the security of any information transmitted from us to any such legal entity. We are not responsible for any accidental loss or unauthorised access to your personal data through a fault of such legal entities. These legal entities are separately responsible for their privacy policies and practices.

We do not control or influence the above-mentioned automatic data processing technologies or how they may be used. If you want to know more about the above-mentioned third-party service providers and their privacy options please see the correspondent websites and privacy policies. Please, note that the App may include links to third-party websites/services, plug-ins and applications (for example, allowing Users to share certain content and information on social media platforms), or you may access the App from a third-party site. Clicking on those links or enabling those connections may allow third parties to collect or share data about you. We do not control these third-party websites/services, plug-ins and applications, and are not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of these third-party websites/services, plug-ins and applications linked to or from our App, including the information or content contained within them.
