

5 Basics from GAP's Latest Sale To Build Your Capsule Wardrobe

Gap is so back. If you, like me, have been on the hunt for high-quality staple and uniquely affordable pieces, search no more: GAP has answered our prayers. Expensive taste on a barista's salary is not for the faint of heart. Thankfully, Gap's outrageous sales have allowed me to build a versatile, timeless and affordable wardrobe that breathes life into an early morning shift, a night out, and everything in between. Deals up to 70% off means chic basics seen on Jenna Ortega, Selena Gomez, Elsa Hosk and more are well within reach, whether your workplace is on a runway or behind an espresso machine. Below are 5 can't-miss picks from the sale.

Mid Rise Corduroy '90s Loose Cargo Pants

These classic cords are available in ivory beige frost for only $20 after checkout. These are an easy way to make any summer outfit look polished and trendy without breaking the bank on a designer label. Dress them down with sneakers and a baby tee, or up with ballet flats and a mock neck tank. With 1,705 5 star reviews, these are an easy investment.

Recycled Velvet Maxi Slip Dress

Three words hold the key to being the stand-out of your office party, nailing a dinner date, or even just stepping out to Trader Joe's in style: velvet slip dress. Throw on some kitten heels and a bold lip, or slip into sneakers and a denim jacket. Either way, your look will radiate quiet luxury for $25. This perennial piece will find itself on repeat, from garden parties to holiday cocktail hours.

CashSoft Cardigan

Gap, in their enduring wisdom, has perfected the formula for knitwear with the look and feel of cashmere and the price tag of a casual dinner for two. 53% cotton, 47% nylon, 100% elegance. For as low as $35, slip into something a little (a lot) more comfortable, without sacrificing your outfit.

Modern Boatneck T-shirt

If you are as in love with the boatneck cut as I am, look no further. This top is the definition of an elevated basic: stay comfortable in this stylish long-sleeve while looking like a million bucks (for $17). Fashion icons have been sporting this look for decades, from Audrey Hepburn to Coco Chanel to Megan Markle to...you, in your new Gap top.

365 High Rise Trousers

I mentioned how these staples can fit into your wardrobe whether your office is the silver screen or a local coffee shop. What if your office is an office? Don't worry, this massive sale has something for everyone. Gap boasts high quality business casual and business formal apparel, so you can show your professionalism without draining your paycheck. Your coworkers will all be asking where your new trousers came from, and I won't judge if you gatekeep them. $26 durable slacks that will dazzle from a big presentation to happy hour are worth it.

Add these to your cart before the sale ends! I can't wait to see the infinite outfits, all deliciously "you", that you style these pieces into.

My Hair is Fine, Short, Frizzy and Generally Out to Get Me: This $20 Product is How I Survive

Contradictory hair types are not for the faint of heart. Puffy, wavy hair composed of about five wiry strands can baffle any product. Smoothing products weigh down the little volume you do have and give you a damp look, volumizing products keep your poodle-level puff intact with a bit more lift on your scalp, and your hard-earned blowout inflates as soon as you step out of your front door. Factor in an ill-advised bob haircut and you are in a pickle. I went down a HairTok rabbit hole to find the answer to what felt like an unsolvable riddle, and what I found changed my life.

VERB Ghost Oil leveled up my hair after one use, and its effects have only gotten better. Whether my hair is straightened, blown out, curled or air-dried, the last step of my routine always has to be this versatile product. Easily applied in dime-sized amounts with a small pump, it tames frizz without giving the stringy look that hair oils tend to create on thin or fine hair. This way, I can achieve a finished look after letting my wavy hair air dry, something that I had truly never thought would be possible.

The only thing more remarkable than the effectiveness of this product is the value. Specialty products often have a prohibitive price tag, but this weightless hair oil is $20 for a 2 ounce bottle, and a little goes a long way! I've been using this almost daily for 6 months and am only now running low. With so many great products out there, repurchasing vs. trying something new can be a tough decision, but in this case, a new bottle was in my Amazon cart the second I noticed it running low. With 81% of over 10,000 reviews giving it 5 stars, VERB Ghost Oil is a no-brainer that I will be reaching for for years to come.

Cook For One Without Compromising (Or Actually Cooking) With This $20 Gem

It's hard out here for a hustler to stay nourished on a budget. Slow cookers are the intersection of convenient, affordable, and low maintenance, while producing real meals that'll give you the fuel you need. Bella's 1.5 Quart Slow Cooker is coming in hot (and slow) with almost 200 5-star reviews and a way to cook dinner while you work, rest, or play.

Check out one of the 100s of unique slow cooker recipes online, throw as many or as few ingredients in as you'd like, and let Bella get to work. Coming home to a delicious and hearty meal will take dinnertime stress off your plate and nip your delivery habit in the bud. Plus, you'll be the hostess with the mostest with buffalo chicken dip waiting for your guests, whether you've been working all day or just planning an outfit for the evening.

1.5 quarts is the perfect amount for you and another person, a party snack for a group, or a delicious dinner followed by a leftover lunch that will have your coworkers asking for the link. From the cool touch handles to the range of gorgeous colors, this easy-to-clean, dishwasher-safe appliance will transform your struggle meals on busy and broke nights into a home-cooked meal that will leave you with a full stomach, without the mound of dishes.

Class up your kitchen with this expensive-looking and completely affordable piece. You won't regret investing in keeping your body fed and fueled without cancelling your plans and hauling hundreds of dollars of groceries (many of which will go bad because cooking for one is a precarious and treacherous model). Make home cooked meals an everyday thing with 3 clicks and $20. Bella wants you to trade in your frozen meals, hangriness and delivery fees for a better way. Let our girl help you out!
