NBLC International Scholarship Book Fund Program

Description

This scholarship is open to all trade-school, undergraduate, and graduate college students, who will be enrolled at the time of the application, and have purchased textbooks. Students should complete the application form, indicating the cost of books from the previous semester, and provide a copy of receipts with the application. The scholarship will provide students with 50% of the amount paid for textbooks, based on the availability of funds. Students with the most financial need, will be considered first, and students can apply for this scholarship each semester they purchase books. Applications will be made available on the organization website (www.nblchurch.org) soon.
