

Hi.
I'm Wynnstan.
I'm a poet.

...

But If i'm being completely honest,
I think I've lost my ability to write poetry.
All that spills from my mind anymore,
are meaningless thoughts that end up on a boring google doc entitled
"idk".
Nothing beneficial is ever written.
Nothing worthwhile.

It's stupid, in my opinion.
That I can no longer write poetry.
No matter where I search,
what I do,
how many google docs i've opened,
I cannot figure out how to write poetry.

Maybe...just maybe...they'll understand.

Wynnstan thinks.

Maybe I'm not as incompetent as I feel.

Wynnstan thinks.

Maybe it'll come back to me.

Wynnstan thinks.

Maybe.
