

SDGS 11.

11. 4. Sustainable practices

11.4.2. Promote sustainable commuting

Description:

The Vocational Education Program carries out promotional activities for sustainable travel, with posters on using public transportation. Apart from that, there are also electric vehicles, it is hoped that this will reduce vehicle emissions in the Vocational Education Program environment. Apart from that, improvements to the pedestrian and bicycle paths have been carried out, so that users have comfort and safety when using these paths.
