

Quiz about the video - Answers key below

1. Where does the queen ant store the fungus she takes from her original nest?

- A Under her wings
- B Inside a special pocket in her mouth
- C In her feet
- D All over her body

2. What happens to the leaves that forager ants cut down?

- A The ants eat them
- B The ants feed them to the queen
- C The ants feed them to the fungus
- D The leaves disguise the nest's entrance

3. While founding a new colony, queens:

- A Seal themselves inside their nest and start laying eggs
- B Attack other nearby colonies to steal their resources
- C Go foraging for leaves to feed their fungus garden
- D Seek out more males to mate with

4. Which of the following is NOT one of the ways worker ants help their fungus grow?

- A Controlling humidity in the nest by opening and closing tunnels
- B Feeding it crushed-up leaf fragments
- C Weeding Escovopsis out of their fungus garden
- D Letting cockroaches feed on it

5. What makes leafcutter ants unique, compared to other ants?

- A They tend gardens of domesticated fungus
- B They eat leaves
- C They live in big colonies
- D They all grow wings

Answers - 1.b 2.C 3.A 4.D 5.A

Work & Ants Convo Questions

Do you think you work as hard as a Leaf Cutter Ant?

Do you think people in the past worked harder than they do today?

Do you think we will ever experience utopia - where we don't need to work and everything is given to us by the government or robots?

If you didn't have to work, how would you spend your time?

What jobs do you think will be important in the next 20 years?

How do you think work and life will be different in the next 100 years?

