

Hello!

I hope this finds you well. My name is [REDACTED], and I work with The Visualist here in Chicago.

A little about us:

The Visualist is Chicago's real-time archive for current and past visual art events. Our free, ad-free, publicly available calendar helps people discover exhibitions, openings, talks, performances, and other visual arts programming throughout the city. We also maintain a growing archive of Chicago's visual art history, documenting everything from exhibitions at established institutions to apartment galleries, basement performances, mobile projects, and other ephemeral events that might otherwise be lost. The Visualist is managed by culture/MATH, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit.

We are holding a fundraiser at SECRIST | BEACH on December 3rd, and we need your help—and your drinks!

We would be thrilled if you could donate beer, wine, or spirits for the event. In return, we'll feature your organization across our social media outreach and promotional materials. If you're interested and available, reach out at your earliest convenience. Our site receives 6,000-8,000 visitors per month.

(In lieu of drinks, we will always take cold hard cash—click here to make a donation as a sponsor of this event.)

Hope to talk soon!

Cheers,
